

WEATHER
Local thunderstorms tonight and Sunday; slightly cooler Sunday.

Dr. Copeland's Appears in The Herald
Regularly

Forty-fourth Year. Number 205.

REPORT SIGHTING PLANE AT SEA

THIS AND THAT

Comments on Anything and Everything for the Week
By Norman W. Ralston

65 YEARS
We always like to listen to words from men like Henry Ford or Thomas Edison. This week it is Mr. Ford speaking on the occasion of his 65th birthday. Quoting Mr. Ford: "I haven't found any age limit. You take all the experience and judgment of men over 50 out of the world and there wouldn't be enough left to run it. Youngsters have their place and are necessary but the experience and judgment of men over 50 are what put purpose and meaning to younger men's efforts. The world is as good a proposition as ever for those who work or for those who will analyze every detail of their work. There is no substitute for work except more intelligent work. Losing money? Who said we had lost anything? They don't understand this business. We can't lose what doesn't belong to us. The profits we made on fifteen million model T cars were not our money. The public paid it to us. Organized as this company is we couldn't do anything with it except use it to make a better car." Thus speaks Ford. And the logic seems fine. We can say to Mr. Ford, however, being somewhat of a "youngster" ourselves, that people cannot wait until they are 50 to have judgment, however. It is in the years from 20 to 35 that man lays the foundation for the successful life of 50 or more. Of course, noting there are exceptions to all rules.

ARTISTS
Folks often blame rash deeds on artistic temperament. In New York this week, the great maestro of all sorts of life, a beautiful Porto Rican writer, burned herself to death in the bathtub of her uptown apartment. Miss Louise Amelia De Hostos left a note addressed to the Chief of Police in which she blamed the "stupid" tongue of an unnamed man. Then she climbed in the tub, saturated her clothing with gasoline and ignited the cloth. Four hours later she was dead. The note she had left read: "As there is no punishment for man who takes a lady's name and disfigures it with all kinds of lies in a sneaky way, never giving a clue for his identification, so that the victim has no means of defending herself, I decided that he must die before God for this insult to my life." She was 38, beautiful, and the daughter of a wealthy Porto Rican who died two years ago and for whom a statue has been erected in San Juan, Un-Love creature. And so goes life. Little gossip and slander drop here and there, seemingly causing death, breeds dissatisfaction and hair, at least. People talk about how to talk and what not to talk about. People's business should not concern you unless it is going to offend you or them, and slander is a sin.

THE HOSPITAL
Pickaway-co in all probability will have a chance to voice their feelings on the proposed new Frank Berger hospital at the fall election. The medical society here proposes to ask for $70,000, as according to the Berger will, a hospital must be erected and in operation before the residue of his estate, estimated to be $30,000, can be given to the city for a hospital. It seems a fair move to pass the bond issue. The county and city is not so heavily indebted but what it can stand for this humanitarian movement. And here is a chance to get a gift of $30,000 for the project provided action is taken quickly. This city and county should not pass up the gifts of men like Frank Berger who must have realized how Pickaway-co and his home city needed a hospital long before many other people have seen it.

WHAT OF THIS?
Mrs. Adeline Letherman, 23-year-old cripple of Charlotte, Mich., took the life of her daughter, Virginia, to save her from an impoverished fate, so she says. And so this is a mother's love. One has heard the question debated down through the ages: should crippled children, impoverished little ones, suffer through the misfortune or neglect of their parents or their fate, or what? It is a question that will never be settled. But we do not believe (Turn to page four, please)

32 DIE FROM HEAT WAVE AS U. S. SWELTERS

Chicago Bears Burden of Fatalities; Six Are Dead In This State.

Thirty-two deaths from prostrations, drownings and lightning is the toll exacted during the 24 hours by the heat wave which has engulfed the eastern half of the United States.

Chicago bore the burden of the fatalities with other deaths reported from Boston, Providence, R. I., Erie, Pa., and New York.

Several hundred persons were overcome by the stifling heat throughout the east. For the third consecutive day, the weather bureau has forecast relief for New York city in the form of rain. So far its average has been 7,000. Thousands of tenement dwellers on New York's east side sought relief on roofs, on fire escapes and in the small neighborhood parks. Kindly firemen opened hydrants and mobs of children, attired in makeshift bathing suits, disported in the cold spray until nearly midnight. The grassy slopes of the more exclusive riverside drive were covered with sweltering persons seeking a breeze from the Hudson river.

Heavy showers, today brought relief to Chicago after a 48-hour siege of heat and humidity. During the night, the temperature went above 90 degrees and suffering was acute through the city. Thousands of persons slept on Lakeside beaches while in the tenement districts, firemen constructed portable shower baths in the streets. In Manhattan pavements were sprinkled generously but the water rose steam that was less bearable than dry heat. Dog owners turned the garden hose on their pets as a precaution against rabies.

HOOVER TO MAKE STATMENTS ON TWO MAIN ISSUES

Has Taken Definite Stand On Farm Relief and Prohibition In Speech.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Aug. 4.—Herbert Hoover has taken a definite stand on farm relief and prohibition in his acceptance speech, which is to be delivered at the opening of his Republican presidential campaign here a week from today.

The nominee has been informed by his friends that the public is awaiting his statements on these two subjects of political discussion with more interest than in other issues. He therefore has treated them with the importance he believes they warrant, the United Press is informed on indisputable authority.

There have been reports around his campus training camp that he might not speak about these two issues with importance some persons thought they deserved, but definite information today dispelled these rumors. The degree to which the candidate now intends to go on the issues cannot be stated until the phraseology of his speech is made public, but his position on the two issues has been officially published before 1928. He is opposed to what he considers "socialism" in farm relief; is not sympathetic with the McNary-Haugen bill proposal that a tax be levied upon producers for withholding surpluses from the market and he favors an efficient government aid system for development of co-operative marketing.

YOUTH IS SOUGHT
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4.—Detective squads today were seeking a 20-year-old youth in connection with the fatal stabbing of William Kelso, 50, last night. Police said Kelso was stabbed three times in the back during a street fight near his home. Police were unable to learn what caused the fight.

Mules Drown When Severe Storm Hits Chillicothe Area

CHILICOTHE, O., Aug. 4.—Two mules were drowned and several buildings were hit by lightning during a severe rain and electrical storm which swept Ross county late yesterday.

Thomas Adams was caught with a team in a small run under the C. & O. trestle as the storm broke. Before he could get out of the place the run was filled with a raging torrent and the mules were drowned.

SHIP CAPTAIN TELLS HOW HE RESCUED FOUR

Captain Courtney and His Airplane Crew Had Thrilling Experience.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The story of how the steamer Minnewaska heard the signals telling that Captain Frank Courtney was down at sea, how the vessel went 341 miles off its course and rescued Courtney and three companions was told today in a dispatch from Captain Frank M. Claret, commander of the vessel.

The airplane was abandoned, left riding on the rough waters. The abandonment was at consent of the owner of the plane who wanted to test the sea worthiness of the Dornier-Napier flying boat. Captain Claret's message here said:

"We picked up the SOS signals from Courtney plane at 6 a.m. Thursday and raced to the position given. We searched without results until 1 p.m. when an amended position of the plane was received. We steamed at once for the new position which we reached at 5 p.m.

"Still there was no plane visible. After measuring the drift eastward in the gulf stream, and figuring the west winds, we steered east 18 miles. We then sighted the plane about nine miles away. We reached it at 6:44 p.m. It was riding easily in the waves. The engine room was burned out and the wireless battery exhausted.

"We sent a boat which returned at 7:09 p.m. with the brave, tired but cheerful survivors, all well. Impossible to save the plane and it was abandoned with consent of the owner, he wishing to test its sea worthiness.

"We went off course 341 miles. Aided by ideal weather and good visibility, Frank H. Claret, captain the 'Minnewaska'.

Those with Courtney when the rescue was effected were Elwood Hosmer, Canadian millionaire and backer of the flight; Hugh Gilmore, radio operator and Fred Perce, mechanic.

TRAVELING MAN FINED $100 HERE

M. J. Carroll, representing The Pittsburgh Glass company, of Columbus, was placed under arrest Saturday morning by the Sheriff's department. He was charged with the possession of intoxicating liquor.

He had a hearing before Judge J. W. Adkins, was found guilty, and was given a fine of $100 and costs, which he paid and was discharged.

YOUTHS HELD FOR ENTERING FARM HOME

KENTON, O., Aug. 4.—Cletus Curran, 18, and James Flanagan, 19, both of Pittsburgh, were in the county jail today in default of $500 bonds following their pleas of guilty to charges of burglary and grand larceny. They were arraigned last night and were bound over to the grand jury.

DRIVE STARTS FOR FARM VOTE BY DEMOCRATS

Governor Himself As Well As Leaders Planning Farm Relief Program.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The drive to bring the disgruntled farmer into the Democratic fold and swell the presidential vote for Gov. Alfred E. Smith is on in earnest today.

With George N. Peek, one of the Agrarian leaders speeding westward to attempt to induce other leaders to meet and confer with Smith, the governor himself is to give several hours of his time today to a further study of farm relief.

Smith has been informed that there are at least half a dozen ways in which the agricultural assistance can be held out to farmers without using the equalization fee of the McNary-Haugen bill, which Smith has emphatically rejected.

It is likely that he will not close his mind on the subject for another two weeks as he is confident that Peek's trip in the west will result in further conferences with other westerners week after next. Just before his speech of acceptance. Out of those talks may come additions to or deletions from his present plan.

From the attention that is now being given to the topic, the opinion is growing that Smith may attempt to make farm relief one of the biggest issues in his campaign, and may make a much more extensive tour of the middle western and other agricultural states than he has originally intended.

It is pointed out that the governor must make inroads into the normally Republican states in the west and middle west if he hopes to win the election, and for this reason the corn belt may become one of the chief battlegrounds for votes.

There is no question in the minds of those who have been close to Smith since his nomination but that the value of farm relief as a campaign issue has been steadily growing, and today it seems to have become one of the paramount ideas under discussion.

The governor is about ready to return to completion of his acceptance speech, work on which was abandoned a week ago.

He will start his return to Albany tomorrow, stopping off at Peekskill, if it is a fair day, to review National Guard troops at the encampment there. If the weather is hot, he will make the trip up the river to the camp on a yacht. Otherwise he will drive up and continue to the capitol by motor.

Aside from discussion of the farm relief problem with his campaign managers he has no appointments on his books for today, and he will declare a holiday for himself at noon.

KNEECE HEARING POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY MORNING

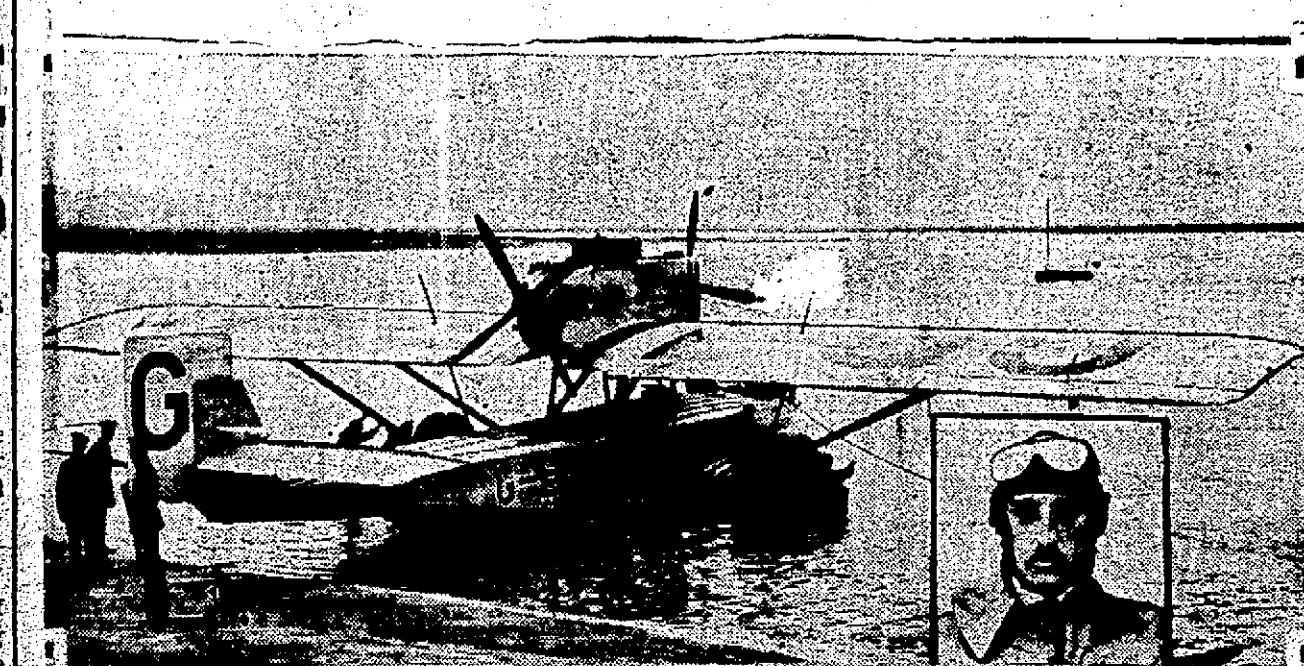

Third Offense Liquor Charge May Bring Sentence To Penitentiary.

The hearing of Albert Kneece charged with having liquor in his possession, following his arrest at his home in South Bloomfield Thursday by Sheriff Frank Davis and his Deputy, Carl Porter, was continued until Monday through request of his attorney, C. A. Welton. He was arraigned in Probate Court.

This is the third time that the prisoner has been charged with the same offense, and if found guilty, faces a penitentiary sentence.

The prohibition law against the possession of intoxicating liquor is so drastic in this state, that the case becomes a felony, the third time. Kneece is out under bond on a previous charge, and also carrying concealed weapons. His bond Saturday was fixed at $1,000, and in default he was remanded to the care of the sheriff.

Forced Down Off Azores

After weeks of bad weather at Horta, Azores, Captain Frank T. Courtney (inset), English aviator, lifted his Dornier-Napier flying boat off the surface of the harbor and headed for Newfoundland. But misfortune again overtook him, the big seaplane being forced down 300 miles at sea. Wireless dispatches state the crew is not in danger. His flight started from Lisbon, Portugal.

FOURTEEN YEARS AGO GREAT DRIVE IN WAR STARTED

And On 14th Anniversary Communist Warning Of Another War Given.

Fourteen years ago today German armies advanced into Belgium, marking the first major powers of the world preparing to sign in Paris an anti-war pact as designed by Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg of the United States.

England and France already have agreed upon a naval agreement somewhat similar to that proposed at the Geneva disarmament conference, which failed. Copies of the agreement have been sent to the major powers for their consideration.

In Moscow today, however, there was a discordant note. The communist internationale, at the annual meeting, issued a manifesto warning that another war was imminent.

MOSCOW, August 4.—On the fourteenth anniversary of Germany's entry into Belgium, the Communist Internationale today issued a manifesto warning that another war was imminent. "The Communist Internationale calls the workers and peasants throughout the world to prepare to convert the coming World War into a world socialist revolution," the manifesto said.

FINLAND WINNER OF 300-METRES; U. S. TRAILS RUN

First Three Places Are Taken By Finnish Athletes Again Showing Power.

AMSTERDAM STADIUM, Aug. 4.—Finland made a clean sweep of the first three places in the 300 metre steeplechase final on the seventh day of the Olympic program today.

Luokola won the steeplechase, with Nurmi second. Anderson completed the Finnish sweep by taking third place.

Willie Ritola, the other Finnish entry, dropped out one lap from the finish.

The United States and Canada qualified easily in the first heat of the 1600 metre relay. All other entrants scratched in the fourth heat of the 1500 metres free style swimming, and Zorrilla, Argentina, and Aulo, Canada, automatically qualified for the semi-finals.

BIENNIAL CONVENTION

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—Discontinuation of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at St. Paul, Minn., and continuation of Capital University Theological Seminary of Columbus with provisions for students of both schools will be considered at the 49th biennial convention of the Evangelical Joint Synod of Ohio and surrounding states to be held in Bexley, Aug. 23 to 29.

Here's Novel Stunt Bootleggers Adopted With Empty Barrels

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The prohibition bureau today discovered bootleggers have a new source of supply—empty liquor kegs. Bootleggers have been obtaining empty kegs, from which whisky had been withdrawn for bottling, and then rinsing them out to get the flavor and alcohol sediment.

Prohibition Commissioner Doran has issued an order requiring all liquor barrels emptied for medicinal bottling to be rinsed or steamed, then to let water stand in the kegs for seven days. When the kegs have been soaked clean "the water must be poured into the ground or sewer," Doran said.

BREACH WIDENS IN ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE DISPUTE

Controversy Over Indorsement of Cooper is Growing More Bitter.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—The breach between the Begg and Cooper factions in the anti-saloon league is widening as the controversy over the indorsement of Cooper for the gubernatorial nomination by officials of the league grows more bitter.

Demand for the resignation or the removal of Dr. E. J. Moore, state superintendent and F. L. Dustman, editor of the American Issue, official organ of the league, is coming from more of the reorganized dries of the state.

Matthew L. Bigger, Columbus, candidate for the nomination for attorney general, who altho a reorganized dry was not indorsed by the league, is the latest to suggest to Dr. Moore that he resign for the reason, Bigger says in a statement that "you are prostituting your position as an executive of an organization moved by high purpose by deliberately joinings hands with a gigantic monopoly to reach down take ill gotten gains out of the pockets of the people thru excessive oppressive rates upon public necessities thru the aid of governmental agencies made possible by the Pence law."

Bigger referred to the charges made against the league by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, that the league is co-operating with the utility lobby in the state legislature.

Evidence of revolt against the dictates of the league officials came from another quarter. Lester D. Hill, Bowling Green, a member of the non-Partisan Advisory committee, also added criticism of Dr. Moore's action and intimated that members of the league would not obey the commands of the officials.

INFANTRY MEETS

MT. VERNON, O., Aug. 4.—Members of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry were arriving here for their 30th annual meeting which opened here today and continues through Sunday.

Company L of the Spanish-American war veterans, is having a homecoming celebration in connection with the meeting.

THOUSANDS READY TO ATTEND GREAT EAGLES SESSIONS

Thirtieth National Convention At Columbus To Last a Week.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—With the National officers of the fraternal Order of Eagles already here, delegates to the thirtieth National convention, which will be held here next week, will start arriving in Columbus tomorrow, though the majority of them probably will not arrive until Monday.

Delegates will come from every station in the Union and from Canada and Alaska. A special train from Milwaukee, which has a chapter of 25,000 members, will arrive Monday afternoon.

The convention will get under way officially Monday night with Frank E. Herring, past grand worthy president and now editor of the Eagle magazine as the principal speaker. One of the features of the convention will be the parade Thursday when 35,000 members of the organization are expected to march by the reviewing stand. The parade will be two miles long.

The two most important questions to be considered during the sessions will be the site for a $3,000,000 National home and nationwide drive for old age pensions.

Knights, Daughters Of Africa To Meet In Columbus Soon

COLUMBUS, Aug. 4.—Several thousand members of the Order of Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa are expected in Columbus for the twenty-sixth annual encampment which will be held all next week.

Arrangements for the convention were in charge of committees headed by Mrs. Cora Williams, Columbus, most excellent queen of State of the Order, and Brig. Gen. Joseph Brown, chairman of the military department. Col. W. C. T. Ayres, Sr., adjutant general of Ohio, is head of the press committee.

Sessions of the convention will be presided over by National Grand master, William H. Fields.

NINE COUPLES ARE STILL IN MARATHON

BUCKEYE LAKE, O., Aug. 4.—Nine couples were still "going strong" today in the dance marathon being held here in effort to break the world's record of 647 hours and 45 minutes of continuous dancing set recently at Wheeling.

The nine couples are good for three or four weeks, observers said. At noon Saturday they had danced 132 hours. Fourteen couples started in the marathon last Sunday midnight.

Five of the eight world champions will be introduced at the lake tonight. They are Frank Scarface, Wheeling; Edith Bushman, James Dillmore, Mary Louise Norky and Jennie Peters, all of Beaver Falls, Pa.

BUT NEWS OF OCEAN FLIGHT TODAY FAILS

Steamer Arto Reports Bi-plane Flying In Westerly Direction.

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Able from the report at 2:40 a.m., Greenwich Mean Time, that a plane had been sighted nothing had been heard up until 1 p.m. today of the Polish fliers and their plane.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The foggy aircourse over the Atlantic today hid the progress of the flight of two gallant Polish army flyers, Majors Louis Idzikowski and Casimir Kubala, who are attempting to beat back along the Lindbergh trail from Paris to New York.

They left Le Bourget field, Paris, at 12:41 a.m. Friday. Their plane was sighted off Lorient, France, whipping along at a 115 miles an hour pace.

Since then there has been no word of this latest attempt to fly the Atlantic westward. Should their flight be successful the two would land in New York—Mitchell, Roosevelt or Jeter fields—some time after noon today. They hoped to maintain a speed of slightly more than 100 miles an hour in their Aviat plane.

Their flight had been planned via the Azores, where they hoped have passed about 48 hours. But so far no word has come. These two former sea and air men, having been in the Polish pilot school and flying weather for their attempt.

Forecasts from across the Atlantic told of fog and haze. But on the first part of their flight they were aided by a strong tail wind that shot their heavily loaded machine along at a maximum speed. They had expected to run into head winds on the last part of their flight from the Azores.

But these two men are stout fatalists. They were told of bad flying conditions. They were warned of other trans-Atlantic disasters of Nungesser, Col. of Hinchliffe and Miss Mackay of Princess Anne of Lowenstein Wertheim.

In Polish they said the word that means "what of it?" and ordered full ahead for their plane and rolled down the long Le Bourget runway.

They circled Paris and passed out of view in the morning haze. Sixty miles off Lorient their craft was sighted by the fishing boat Quinquoin. Careful watch has been maintained since then for a view of the trim French plane that the Polish government purchased for this trans-Atlantic attempt. But there was a fog and mist that would have prevented sight of the craft unless it was within half mile of the watcher.

There was a possibility that after reaching the Azores the flyers would not try to strike off to Newfoundland and thence continue down to New York. Some predicted that with weather conditions as they are the two gallant Poles might decide on a direct route into New York. It would be a new route for the trans-Atlantic flight and one generally considered less favorable than the Newfoundland course. Fogs and bad weather conditions were reported from the grand banks.

Criticism has been sounded of the flight in Germany particularly. Idzikowski and Kubala are trusting their luck to a single motor, 650 horse power craft—just as Lindbergh used only a single motor machine when he flew to Paris.

They discarded everything possible to lighten their load. This included the radio set so that they will be unable to communicate on their long journey. Their only preparation for disaster at sea was a rubber boat that could be landed should the plane alight in the water in such a way that the men might escape.

They would not be so fortunate in landing on the water as was Captain Frank Courtney when his Dornier-Napier while caught off Wednesday. Courtney's machine was made for a water landing. (Turn to page five, please)

WEATHER
Local thundershowers tonight and Sunday; slightly cooler Sunday.

The Circleville Herald

A NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF CIRCLEVILLE AND PICKAWAY COUNTY

Dr. Copeland's Health Talks Appear in The Herald
Regularly

Forty-fourth Year. Number 205.

CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1928.

Three Cents

REPORT SIGHTING PLANE AT SEA

THIS AND THAT

Comments on Anything and Everything for the Week
By Norman W. Ralston

65 YEARS

We always like to listen to words from men like Henry Ford or Thomas Edison. This week it is Mr. Ford speaking on the occasion of his 65th birthday. Quoting Mr. Ford: "I haven't found any age limit. You take all the experience and judgment of men over 50 out of the world and there wouldn't be enough left to run it. Youngsters have their place and are necessary but the experience and judgment of men over 50 are what put purpose and meaning to younger men's efforts. The world is as good a proposition as ever for those who work or for those who will analyze every detail of their work. There is no substitute for work except more intelligent work. Losing money? Who said we had lost anything? They don't understand this business. We can't lose what doesn't belong to us. The profits we made on fifteen million model T cars wasn't our money. The public paid it to us. Organized as this company is we couldn't do anything with it except use it to make a better car." Thus speaks Ford. And the logic seems fine. We can say to Mr. Ford, however, being somewhat of a "youngster" ourselves, that people cannot wait until they are 50 to have judgment, however. It is in the years from 20 to 35 that man lays the foundation for the successful life of 50 or more. Of course, noting there are exceptions to all rules.

ARTISTS

Folks often blame rash deeds on artistic temperament. In New York this week, the great maestro of all sorts of life, a beautiful Porto Rican writer, burned herself to death in the bathtub of her uptown apartment. Miss Louise Amelia De Hostos left a note addressed to the Chief of Police in which she blamed the slanderous tongue of an unnamed man. Then she climbed in the tub, saturated her clothing with gasoline and ignited the cloth. Four hours later she was dead. The note she had left read: "As there is no punishment for man who takes a lady's name and disfigures it with all kinds of lies in a sneaky way, never giving a clue for his identification, so that the victim has no means of defending herself I decided that he must die before God for this taking of my life." She was 38, beautiful, and the daughter of a wealthy Porto Rican who died two years ago and for whom a statue has been erected in San Juan, Unhappy creature! And so goes life. A little gossip and slander drop here and there, seemingly harmless in its inception, often bringing death breeds dissatisfaction and hatred at last. People talk about how to talk about other people's business should not concern you unless it is going to benefit you or them, and slander never does that.

THE HOSPITAL

Voters of Pickaway-co in all probability will have a chance to voice their feelings on the proposed new Frank Berger hospital at the fall election. The medical society here proposes to ask for $70,000, as according to the Berger will, a hospital must be erected and in operation before the residue of his estate, estimated to be $30,000, can be given to the city for a hospital. It seems a fair move to pass the bond issue. The county and city is not so heavily indebted but what it can stand for this humanitarian movement. And here is a chance to get a gift of $30,000 for the project provided action is taken quickly. This city and county should not pass up the gifts of men like Frank Berger who must have realized how Pickaway-co and his home city needed a hospital long before many other people have seen it.

WHAT OF THIS?

Mrs. Adeline Letherman, 23-year-old cripple of Charlotte, Mich., took the life of her daughter, Virginia, to save her from an impoverished fate, so she says. And so this is a mother's love. One has heard the question debated down through the ages: should crippled children, impoverished little ones, suffer through the misfortune or neglect of their parents or their fate, or what? It is a question that will never be settled. But we do not believe

32 DIE FROM HEAT WAVE AS U.S. SWELTERS

Chicago Bears Burden of Fatalities; Six Are Dead In This State.

Thirty-two deaths from prostrations, drownings and lightning is the toll exacted during the 24 hours by the heat wave which has engulfed the eastern half of the United States.

Chicago bore the burden of the fatalities with other deaths reported from Boston, Providence, R. I., Erie, Pa., and New York. Several hundred persons were overcome by the stifling heat throughout the east.

For the third consecutive day, the weather bureau has forecast relief for New York city in the form of rain. So far its average has been 7,000. Thousands of tenement dwellers on New York's east side sought relief on roofs, on fire escapes and in the small neighborhood parks. Kindly firemen opened hydrants and mobs of children, attired in makeshift bathing suits, disported in the cold spray until nearly midnight.

The grassy slopes of the more exclusive riverside drive were covered with sweltering persons seeking a breeze from the Hudson river.

Heavy showers, today brought relief to Chicago after a 48-hour siege of heat and humidity. During the night the temperature went above 90 degrees and suffering was acute through the city. Thousands of persons slept on Lakeside beaches while in the tenement districts, firemen constructed portable shower baths in the streets.

In Manhattan pavements were sprinkled generously but the water rose steam that was less bearable than dry heat.

Dog owners turned the garden hose on their pets as a precaution against rabies.

HOOVER TO MAKE STATMENTS ON TWO MAIN ISSUES

Has Taken Definite Stand On Farm Relief and Prohibition In Speech.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Aug. 4.—Herbert Hoover has taken a definite stand on farm relief and prohibition in his acceptance speech, which is to be delivered at the opening of his Republican presidential campaign here a week from today.

The nominee has been informed by his friends that the public is awaiting his statements on these two subjects of political discussion with more interest than in other issues. He therefore has treated them with the importance he believes they warrant, the United Press is informed on indisputable authority.

There have been reports around his campus training camp that he might not speak about these two issues with importance some persons thought they deserved, but definite information today dispelled these rumors.

The degree to which the candidate now intends to go on the issues cannot be stated until the phraseology of his speech is made public, but his position on the two issues has been officially published before 1943. He is opposed to what he considers "socialism" in farm relief; is not sympathetic with the McNary-Haugen bill proposal that a tax be levied upon producers from the market and he favors an efficient government aid system for development of co-operative marketing.

YOUTH IS SOUGHT

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4.—Detective squads today were seeking a 20-year-old youth in connection with the fatal stabbing of William Kelso, 50, last night. Police said Kelso was stabbed three times in the back during a street fight near his home.

Police were unable to learn what caused the fight.

Mules Drown When Severe Storm Hits Chillicothe Area

CHILLICOTHE, O., Aug. 4.—Two mules were drowned and several buildings were hit by lightning during a severe rain and electrical storm which swept Ross county late yesterday.

Thomas Adams was caught with a team in a small run under the C. & O. trestle as the storm broke. Before he could get out of the place the run was filled with a raging torrent and the mules were drowned.

SHIP CAPTAIN TELLS HOW HE RESCUED FOUR

Captain Courtney and His Airplane Crew Had Thrilling Experience.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The story of how the steamer Minnewaska heard the signals telling that Captain Frank Courtney was down at sea, how the vessel went 341 miles off its course and rescued Courtney and three companions was told today in a dispatch from Captain Frank M. Claret, commander of the vessel.

The airplane was abandoned, left riding on the rough waters. The abandonment was at consent of the owner of the plane who wanted to test the sea worthiness of the Dornier-Napier flying boat.

Captain Claret's message here said: "We picked up the SOS signals from Courtney plane at 6 a.m. Thursday and raced to the position given. We searched without results until 1 p.m. when an amended position of the plane was received. We steamed at once for the new position which we reached at 5 p.m."

"Still there was no plane visible. After measuring the drift eastward in the gulf stream and figuring the west winds, we steered east 18 miles. We then sighted the plane about nine miles away. We reached it at 6:44 p.m. It was riding easily in the waves. The engine room was burned out and the wireless battery exhausted."

"We sent a boat which returned at 7:09 p.m. with the brave, tired but cheerful survivors, all well. Impossible to save the plane and it was abandoned with consent of the owner, he wishing to test its sea worthiness."

"We went off course 341 miles. Aided by ideal weather and good visibility, Frank H. Claret, captain the 'Minnewaska'."

Those with Courtney when the rescue was effected were Elwood Hosmer, Canadian millionaire and backer of the flight; Hugh Gilmore, radio operator and Fred iPerce, mechanic.

TRAVELING MAN FINED $100 HERE

M. J. Carroll, representing The Pittsburgh Glass company, of Columbus, was placed under arrest Saturday morning by the Sheriff's department. He was charged with the possession of intoxicating liquor.

He had a hearing before Judge J. W. Adkins, was found guilty, and was given a fine of $100 and costs, which he paid and was discharged.

YOUTHS HELD FOR ENTERING FARM HOME

KENTON, O., Aug. 4.—Cletus Curran, 18, and James Flanagan, 19, both of Pittsburgh, were in the county jail today in default of $500 bonds following their pleas of guilty to charges of burglary and grand larceny. They were arraigned last night and were bound over to the grand jury.

The charges were filed by Michael T. Down, Kenton farmer. The youths were charged with entering the Down home and the Zelotes Cook home, taking clothing, guns, jewelry and other articles valued at more than $200.

LIGHTNING KILLS TWO

LEBANON, O., Aug. 4.—Estelle Moore, 30, and Robert Cole, 32, both of South Lebanon, were struck by lightning and killed late yesterday when they had taken refuge under a bush during a heavy rain.

DRIVE STARTS FOR FARM VOTE BY DEMOCRATS

Governor Himself As Well As Leaders Planning Farm Relief Program.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The drive to bring the disgruntled farmer into the Democratic fold and swell the presidential vote for Gov. Alfred E. Smith is on in earnest today.

With George N. Peek, one of the Agrarian leaders speeding westward to attempt to induce other leaders to meet and confer with Smith, the governor himself is to give several hours of his time today to a further study of farm relief.

Smith has been informed that there are at least half a dozen ways in which the agricultural assistance can be held out to farmers without using the equalization fee of the McNary-Haugen bill, which Smith has emphatically rejected.

It is likely that he will not close his mind on the subject for another two weeks as he is confident that Peek's trip in the west will result in further conferences with other westerners week after next. Just before his speech of acceptance. Out of those talks may come additions to or deletions from his present plan.

From the attention that is now being given to the topic, the opinion is growing that Smith may attempt to make farm relief one of the biggest issues in his campaign, and may make a much more extensive tour of the middle western and other agricultural states than he had originally intended.

It is pointed out that the governor must make inroads into the normally Republican states in the west and middle west if he hopes to win the election, and for this reason the corn belt may become one of the chief battlegrounds for votes.

There is no question in the minds of those who have been close to Smith since his nomination but that the value of farm relief as a campaign issue has been steadily growing, and today it seems to have become one of the paramount ideas under discussion.

The governor is about ready to return to completion of his acceptance speech, work on which was abandoned a week ago.

He will start his return to Albany tomorrow, stopping off at Peekskill, if it is a fair day, to review National Guard troops at the encampment there. If the weather is hot, he will make the trip up the river to the camp on a yacht. Otherwise he will drive up and continue to the capitol by motor.

Aside from discussion of the farm relief problem with his campaign managers he has no appointments on his books for today, and he will declare a holiday for himself at noon.

KNEECE HEARING POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY MORNING

Third Offense Liquor Charge May Bring Sentence To Penitentiary.

The hearing of Albert Kneece, charged with having liquor in his possession, following his arrest at his home in South Bloomfield, Thursday by Sheriff Frank Davis and his Deputy, Carl Porter, was continued until Monday through request of his attorney, C. A. Welton. He was arraigned in Probate Court.

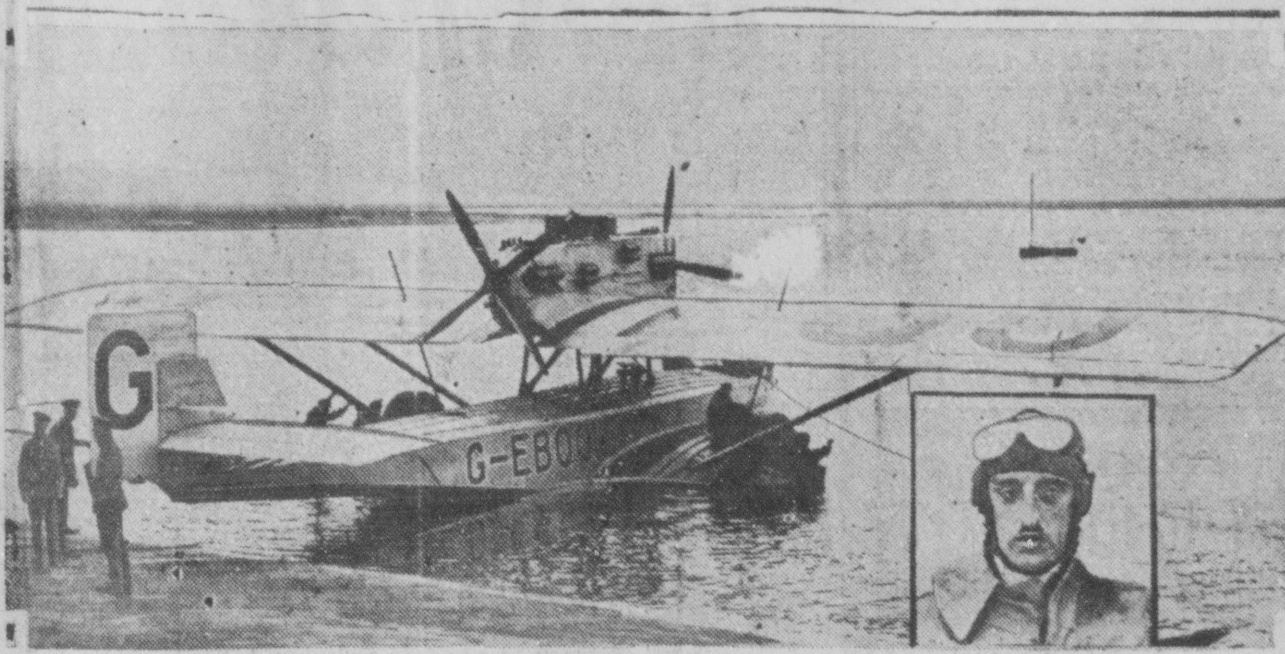

This is the third time that the prisoner has been charged with the same offense, and if found guilty, faces a penitentiary sentence.

The prohibition law against the possession of intoxicating liquor is so drastic in this state, that the case becomes a felony, the third time.

Kneece is out under bond on a previous charge, and also carrying concealed weapons.

His bond Saturday was fixed at $1,000, and in default he was remanded to the care of the sheriff.

Forced Down Off Azores

After weeks of bad weather at Horta, Azores, Captain Frank T. Courtney (inset), English aviator, lifted his Dornier-Napier flying boat off the surface of the harbor and headed for Newfoundland. But misfortune again overtook him.

the big seaplane being forced down 500 miles at sea. Wireless dispatches state the crew is not in danger. His flight started from Lisbon, Portugal.

FOURTEEN YEARS AGO GREAT DRIVE IN WAR STARTED

And On 14th Anniversary Communist Warning Of Another War Given.

Fourteen years ago today German armies advanced into Belgium, marking the first major powers of the world preparing to sign in Paris an anti-war pact as designed by Secretary of State Frank E. Kellogg of the United States.

England and France already have agreed upon a naval agreement somewhat similar to that proposed at the Geneva disarmament conference, which failed. Copies of the agreement have been sent to the major powers for their consideration.

In Moscow today, however, there was a discordant note. The communist internationale, at the annual meeting, issued a manifesto warning that another war was imminent.

MOSCOW, August 4.—On the fourteenth anniversary of Germany's entry into Belgium, the Communist Internationale today issued a manifesto warning that another war was imminent.

"The Communist Internationale calls the workers and peasants throughout the world to prepare to convert the coming World War into a world socialist revolution," the manifesto said.

FINLAND WINNER OF 300-METRES; U. S. TRAILS RUN

First Three Places Are Taken By Finnish Athletes Again Showing Power.

AMSTERDAM STADIUM, Aug. 4.—Finland made a clean sweep of the first three places in the 300 metre steeplechase final on the seventh day of the Olympic program today.

Luokola won the steeplechase, with Nurmi second.

Anderson completed the Finnish sweep by taking third place.

Willie Ritola, the other Finnish entry, dropped out one lap from the finish.

The United States and Canada qualified easily in the first heat of the 1600 metre relay.

All other entrants scratched in the fourth heat of the 1500 metres free style swimming, and Zorrilla, Argentina, and Aulo, Canada, automatically qualified for the semi-finals.

BIENNIAL CONVENTION

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—Discontinuation of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at St. Paul, Minn., and continuation of Capital University Theological Seminary of Columbus with provisions for students of both schools will be considered at the 49th biennial convention of the Evangelical Joint Synod of Ohio and surrounding states to be held in Bexley, Aug. 23 to 29.

Here's Novel Stunt Bootleggers Adopted With Empty Barrels

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The prohibition bureau today discovered bootleggers have a new source of supply—empty liquor kegs.

Bootleggers have been obtaining empty kegs, from which whisky had been withdrawn for bottling, and then rinsing them out to get the flavor and alcohol sediment.

Prohibition Commissioner Doran has issued an order requiring all liquor barrels emptied for medicinal bottling to be rinsed or steamed, then to let water stand in the kegs for seven days.

When the kegs have been soaked clean "the water must be poured into the ground or sewer," Doran said.

BREACH WIDENS IN ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE DISPUTE

Controversy Over Indorsement of Cooper is Growing More Bitter.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—The breach between the Begg and Cooper factions in the anti-saloon league is widening as the controversy over the indorsement of Cooper for the gubernatorial nomination by officials of the league grows more bitter.

Demand for the resignation or the removal of Dr. E. J. Moore, state superintendent and F. L. Dustman, editor of the American Issue, official organ of the league, is coming from more of the reorganized drys of the state.

Matthew L. Bigger, Columbus, candidate for the nomination for attorney general, who although a recognized dry was not indorsed by the league, is the latest to suggest to Dr. Moore that he resign for the reason, Bigger says in a statement that "you are prostituting your position as an executive of an organization moved by high purpose by deliberately joinings hands with a gigantic monopoly to reach down take ill gotten gains out of the pockets of the people thru excessive oppressive rates upon public necessities thru the aid of governmental agencies made possible by the Pence law."

Bigger referred to the charges made against the league by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, that the league is co-operating with the utility lobby in the state legislature.

Evidence of revolt against the dictates of the league officials came from another quarter. Lester D. Hill, Bowling Green, a member of the non-Partisan Advisory committee, also added criticism of Dr. Moore's action and intimated that members of the league would not obey the commands of the officials.

INFANTRY MEETS

MT. VERNON, O., Aug. 4.—Members of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry were arriving here for their 30th annual meeting which opened here today and continues through Sunday.

Company L, of the Spanish-American war veterans, is having a homecoming celebration in connection with the meeting.

THOUSANDS READY TO ATTEND GREAT EAGLES SESSIONS

Thirtieth National Convention At Columbus To Last a Week.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—With the National officers of the fraternal Order of Eagles already here, delegates to the thirtieth National convention, which will be held here next week, will start arriving in Columbus tomorrow, though the majority of them probably will not arrive until Monday.

Delegates will come from every station in the Union and from Canada and Alaska. A special train from Milwaukee, which has a chapter of 25,000 members, will arrive Monday afternoon.

The convention will get under way officially Monday night with Frank E. Herring, past grand worthy president and now editor of the Eagle magazine as the principal speaker. One of the features of the convention will be the parade Thursday when 35,000 members of the organization are expected to march by the reviewing stand. The parade will be two miles long.

The two most important questions to be considered during the sessions will be the site for a $3,000,000 National home and nationwide drive for old age pensions.

Knights, Daughters Of Africa To Meet In Columbus Soon

COLUMBUS, Aug. 4.—Several thousand members of the Order of Ancient United Knights and Daughters of Africa are expected in Columbus for the twenty-sixth annual encampment which will be held all next week.

Arrangements for the convention were in charge of committees headed by Mrs. Cora Williams, Columbus, most excellent queen of State of the Order, and Brig. Gen. Joseph Brown, chairman of the military department. Col. W. C. Ayres, Sr., adjutant general of Ohio, is head of the press committee.

Sessions of the convention will be presided over by National Grand master, William H. Fields.

NINE COUPLES ARE STILL IN MARATHON

BUCKEYE LAKE, O., Aug. 4.—Nine couples were still "going strong" today in the dance marathon being held here in effort to break the world's record of 647 hours and 45 minutes of continuous dancing set recently at Wheeling.

The nine couples are good for three or four weeks, observers said. At noon Saturday they had danced 132 hours. Fourteen couples started in the marathon last Sunday midnight.

Five of the eight world champions will be introduced at the lake tonight. They are Frank Scarface, Wheeling; Edith Bush, Norky and Jennie Peters, all of Beaver Falls, Pa.

BUT NEWS OF OCEAN FLIGHT TODAY FAILS

Steamer Arto Reports Bi-plane Flying In Westerly Direction.

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Aside from the report at 2:40 a.m., Greenwich Mean Time, that a plane had been sighted, nothing had been heard up until 1 p.m. today of the Polish fliers and their plane.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The foggy aircourse over the Atlantic today hid the progress of the flight of two gallant Polish army fliers, Majors Louis Idzikowski and Casimir Kubala, who are attempting to beat back along the Lindbergh trail from Paris to New York.

They left Le Bourget field, Paris, at 12:41 a.m. Friday. Their plane was sighted off Lorient, France, whipping along at a 115 miles an hour pace.

Since then there has been no word of this latest attempt to fly the Atlantic westwardly.

Should their flight be successful the two would land in New York—Mitchell, Roosevelt or Curtiss fields—some time after noon today. They hoped to maintain a speed of slightly better than 100 miles an hour in their Amiot plane.

Their flight had been planned via the Azores, where they should have passed about dusk Friday. But no trace was seen of their cream, white and blue sesaulplane.

These two former war enemies—Kubala having flown with the Austrians when Idzikowski was a Polish pilot—picked bad flying weather for their attempt.

Forecasts from over the Atlantic told of fog and haze. But on the first part of their flight they were aided by a strong tail wind that shot their heavily loaded machine along at a maximum speed. They had expected to run into head winds on the last part of their flight from the Azores.

But these two men are almost fatalists. They were told of bad flying conditions. They were warned of other trans-Atlantic disasters of Nungesser-Coll, of Hinchliffe and Miss Mackay, of Princess Anne of Lowenstein Wertheim.

In Polish they said the word that means "what of it?" and ordered full ahead for their plane and rolled down the long Le Bourget runway.

They circled Paris and passed out of view in the morning haze. Sixty miles off Lorient their craft was sighted by the fishing boat Quinquin. Careful watch has been maintained since then for a view of the trim French plane that the Polish government purchased for this trans-Atlantic attempt. But there was a fog and mist that would have prevented sight of the craft unless it was within half mile of the watcher.

There was a possibility that after reaching the Azores the fliers would not try to strike off to Newfoundland and thence continue down to New York. Some predicted that with weather conditions as they are the two gallant Poles might decide on a direct route into New York. It would be a new route for the trans-Atlantic flight and one generally considered less favorable than the Newfoundland course.

Fogs and bad weather conditions were reported from the grand banks.

Criticism has been sounded of the flight, in Germany particularly. Idzikowski and Kubala are trusting their luck to a single motored, 650 horse power craft—just as Lindbergh used only a single motored machine when he flew to Paris.

They discarded everything possible to lighten their load. This included the radio set so that they will be unable to communicate on their long journey. Their only preparation for disaster at sea was a rubber boat that could be landed should the plane alight on the water in such a way that the men might escape.

They would not be so fortunate in landing on the water as was Captain Frank Courtney when his Dornier-Napier whale caught fire Wednesday. Courtney's machine was made for a water landing.

(Turn to page five, please.)

Religious Education-Church Service

Sunday Services

LUTHERAN CHURCH
Rev. G. J. Troutman, Minister
E. Mound-St.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Regular service 10:15. Sermon "Shake of the Viper."
Sunday school at Lick Run church at 2 p. m. Regular service at 3 p. m.
Sunday school and congregational picnic Wednesday afternoon and evening.
The Lutheran Brotherhood will entertain Ashville Brotherhood at the Parish House Wednesday evening at 7:30. The Ashville Brotherhood will furnish the program.
Teachers' meeting Friday evening.
Junior choir rehearsal Thursday evening.
Intermediate choir Friday evening.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH
Rev. S. W. Hiles, Minister
326 E. Main-St.
Bible school 9 a. m. J. R. Kirkpatrick, superintendent.
Morning worship at 10. Sermon "Christ's Yoke."
Christian Endeavor 6:30.
Evening service 7:30; sermon, "The Choice of a Road."
Stoutsville campmeeting Aug. 7 to 19.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH
Rev. J. S. Hannan, Pastor
W. Mound-St.
Masses at 7 and 9 o'clock.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Rev. E. S. Toensmeier, Minister
E. Mound-St.
9:15 A. M. Bible school. H. Stanley Lewis, assistant superintendent.
10:15 A. M. Sermon: "The Soul's Battle Royal."
Rev. J. T. Alexander, Amherst, Ohio, preacher.
Brief order of service.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Franklin McElfresh, Minister
E. Main-St.
Regular morning services at 10:15.

Dr. G. S. Corne
DENTIST
New Location—Suite 6
I. O. O. F. Building
Phone 457. Residence 1029.

The secret of success is constancy to purpose.—Disraeli.

All Kinds of POTTED PLANTS
and FLOWERS
WALNUT ST. GREENHOUSE
C. F. HILL
Phone 980

God from a beautiful necessity is love.

INSURE BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE.
Insurance For Every Purpose.
HUMMEL & PLUM
"The Service Agency"
I. O. O. F. Bldg. Phone 143

Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy.

FUNERAL SERVICE
Since 1868
W. H. ALBAUGH CO.
Fred C. Clark.
Opposite Court House
Phone 25

Cherish the body but only as the casing of the soul.

Rock of Ages
"The Flawless Barre Granite"
Zenker Bros.
124 E. Main St. Phone 19

GOLDEN CRUST BREAD
Is Your Best Food. Eat it With Every Meal.
Fritz Steam Bakery
117 E. Main St.

Methodist church with preaching by Dr. McElfresh.

CALVARY EVANGELICAL
Rev. E. A. Tovey, Minister
Cor. Mill and Washington-Sts.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Preaching at 10:15.
E. L. C. E. 6:45. Mrs. Ruby Hudnell, leader. Subject: "Personal Conviction Vs Following the Crowd."
Preaching at 7:30.
Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Home Education
Decay of Talent Unused
In one of the places in the city of Genoa, there is a glass case very carefully guarded. It contains a violin used by the great violinist Paganini. The violin was bequeathed to the city of Genoa, on condition that it should never be used again.

It has been preserved since then as the greatest treasure of the city. But the violin is perishing and sometime will fall to pieces. When it was used and the touch of the bow kept in vibration, it was safe. Now that it is perfectly still it is attacked by insects which are destroying the wood.

Under the hand of its master, it gave forth the most wonderful music a violin has ever produced. Now it is silent and useless.

What is true of this violin is true of talents and capabilities; if they are not used they will decay and be lost.

D. Carl Yoder.

Creamed Comments
On S.S. Lesson

Creamed Comments on the Sunday School Lesson, Paul in a Pagan Country, Acts 14:1-28 for Sunday, Aug. 5th.

A journey of about 50 miles from Antioch in Pisidia brought Paul and Barnabas to the ancient city of Iconium where they preached with great success, but met with great opposition driving them to Lystra 18 miles distant to the south. Here the cripple was healed, sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas was prevented and Paul was stoned. The next day they journeyed 20 miles to Derbe.

V. S. "And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked." A lifetime lameness like this would render the miracle of healing a marvelous fact that could not have been performed by mere suggestion.

Vt. 9, 10. "The same heard Paul speaking; who fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, said with a loud voice, 'Stand upright on thy feet.' And he leaped up and walked." The exercise of faith is fundamental in salvation. Paul was as confident in God responding to human faith that he did not whisper but spoke with a loud

Phone 68
For Your Grocery Needs.
E. S. NEUDING
215 E. Main St.

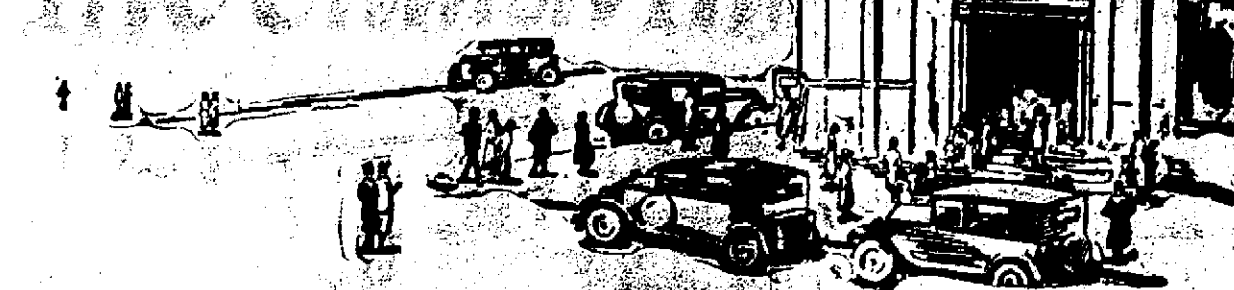

The Ten Commandments were intended as a barricade of safety.

Dr. G. L. Hitler
DENTIST
X-RAY
Over Barrere & Nickerson
113 1/2 W. Main St.

Jealously is a confession that the other fellow is as good or better than you are.

E. L. Crist
Attorney-at-Law
Notary Public
122 W. Main St. Phone 362

The Church Invites You

A Sacred Memory.
Rev. Fred Smith says "There were times, doubtless, when my young spirit rebelled against going to morning church service but the significant thing is that I can not now recall them."

sing on occasion. I did not particularly listen for this then. But it is significant that I remember now.
The influence for good in years to come follows church attendance. Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?
D. Carl Yoder.

VARNISHES

Fly Chaser
$1.15-$1.25 Gal.

PAINTS

$2.45 and
$3 Gal.

BRUSHES

Disinfectants
$1.15 Gal.

CHAS. F. GOELLER

Cor. Pickaway and Franklin Sts.

voice. The works of faith follow the exercise of faith and produce joy and happiness.

Vs. 11-13. "And when the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying the gods are come down upon us in the likeness of men." And the priests of Jupiter would have done sacrifice with the multitudes." The multitudes may not have understood Paul but they did understand the lame man who was healed and were willing to admit the working of a superior power which they located in Paul and would sacrifice to him as was their custom of sacrificing to their gods."

Vs. 14, 15. "But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments and sprang forth among the multitude crying out and saying, sirs, why do ye do these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto a living God who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that in them is." Not for a minute would Barnabas and Paul allow themselves to be worshipped, declaring themselves human messengers of a living God who was the true God because of what he had wrought as seen in land, sea and sky.

Vc. 16, 17. "Who in the generations gone by suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. And yet he left himself not without witness, in that he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with joy and gladness. Men are treated in a manner to allow them to exercise their freedom of choice which calls for programs where evil is possible; there is an appeal to reason in the orderly workings of nature such as seen in needed rains and fruitful seasons—there must be a God back of it all.

Vs. 19, 29. "Jews having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead; but as the disciples stood around about him, he rose up and entered into the city." These missionaries were making shipwreck of the Jewish faith hence they were to be gotten rid of, the plan being to stone them to death. By a miracle Paul was saved and boldly returned to his task.

World Religious News

A Methodist Episcopal church in San Francisco is planning to erect a skyscraper church building. Part of the building will be made into a hotel with five hundred rooms.

Word has been received by the Federal Council of Churches that plans are being made to hold an International Christian Press Conference and Exhibit in Cologne, Germany, Aug. 16-22. The date immediately predicts the Prague Conference of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the churches. It is estimated that there are 150,000 children now enrolled in classes for week-day religious instruction. Approximately 1000 cities and towns have made provision for supplementing the Sunday School instruction in this way, showing an increasing cooperation between denominations as well as with the public schools.

A petition to the pope signed by 33 cardinals and 560 bishops, requests him to give his consent and blessing to the new "Feast of Christ the Worker." The aim of such a festival is to stress the dignity of labor by the example of the carpenter of Nazareth and to show to the laboring classes that the church is in sympathy with labor.

A world Youth Peace Congress will be held in Eerde, Holland, Aug. 17-26, for the purpose of studying the abstract causes of war and to endeavor to arouse the youth of the world to action in dealing with war elimination. Five hundred delegates are expected, 350 from Europe, 100 from the Americas and fifty from Asia, Africa and Australia. Eighty will go from the United States.

Easily won riches are often the hardest to keep.

LUMBER
MILL WORK ROOFING
PAINTS
THE PICKAWAY COUNTY LUMBER CO.
E. Main St. Phone 13

KOLSTER RADIOS
Are Better—Make Us Prove It
Haines-Miller
166 W. Main St. Phone 1257

Discussion on Questions S.S. Lesson

Discussion Questions on the Sunday School Lesson, Paul in a Pagan country, Acts 14:1-28 for Sunday, Aug. 5th.

1. What good may result from reverses?
2. How account for the miracle of healing wrought by Paul? Where may be found today similar miracles of healing?
3. Why would it have been wrong for Paul to have received glory for his healing ministry?
4. How account for the change of attitude of the multitude toward Paul at Lystra?
5. How far is public sentiment to be trusted?
6. Of what value are medical missionaries today?
7. When is it best for a minister to change his field of labor?

Crerious says, "The persecuted can not claim the desirable beatitudes unless they suffer for righteousness sake. There is no merit in being deservedly under criticism, but we can rejoice when we are reproached for Christ sake."

Lesson Prayer, "O Lord, we thank Thee for grace and strength furnished in time of great need; help us to undertake large tasks for Thee, not counting the cost but helping implicitly upon Thee."

Church Forum

(Send problems in question form to "Church Forum" answers will appear in later issue.)

1. WHAT PART SHOULD THE PASTOR HAVE IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL?
The minister should have a large place in the activities of the Sunday school. This does not mean necessarily that he should teach a class regularly. He ought certainly keep in close touch with the "weekly training" class. He should sometimes lead the worship services of the different departments. He needs to have a large part in teachers' conferences and especially in the workers' conferences. His pastoral visiting should function wherever possible into the work of the Sunday School. He should be a member of the committee on religious education and while not necessarily a professional, he is a general practitioner and as such has good counsel.

2. WHAT IS THE NEED OF A COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND HOW IS IT COMPOSED?
The modern Sunday School is so differently organized and offers unusual opportunity for the church to serve childhood and youth that the work calls for increased consideration; hence a special committee popularly called the committee on religious education. It consists of the minister, the general superintendent, departmental superintendents, the secretary-treasurer, the director of religious education and the presidents of all educational organizations of the church with some helpful members at large. It should be responsible for the educational policies and the program of religious education of the church.

A man is not worth his salt who is not willing to risk his life in a great cause.—Roosevelt.

PASTEURIZED MILK
and WHIPPING CREAM
THE HOME DAIRY
Phone 767

When you feel blue or see red, let the white light of God's truth shine upon you.

Be Prepared to Keep Warm
When Winter Comes.
Let us plan your heating job now—
Ed Crist
120 W. Main St.

The devil's best weapon is the wedge.

AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY INSURANCE
THE HOME SAVER.
S. G. Rader
Pythian Castle Phone 584

This Church Page Is Made Possible by Following Business and Professional Men

Ed Sensenbrenner
H. E. Betz & Son
Hummel & Plum
W. H. Albaugh Co.
Dr. G. L. Hitler
E. L. Crist
C. F. Seitz
Geo. Grand-Girard
Ed Crist
Mader & Ebert
Pickaway Lumber Co.
Haines-Miller
Chas. Goeller
The Third National Bank
S. G. Rader
Walnut St. Greenhouse

Dr. O. J. Towers
L. M. Butch
The Circleville Produce Co.
Wilder's Drug Store
A. C. Cook
Fissell Electric Co.
Mitchell Florist
Dr. G. S. Corne
F. A. Lynch
F. E. Neuding
F. E. Barnhill
Fritz Bakery
The Home Dairy
Zenker Bros.
Rinehart Funeral Home

THE BETTER WAY

The World Court Again
"The belief is growing that the question of American membership in the Permanent Court of International Justice may again become a vital public issue. The senate on Jan. 27th, 1926, by a vote of its members gave its advice and consent to the adherence of the United States to the World Court. As is well known, the Geneva conference of Signatory States declared its inability to accept without modification the fourth and fifth reservations laid down by the senate in its vote of adherence. These states, however, in transmitting their reply, referred to 'such exchange of views as the Government of the United States may think useful.'"

No such exchange of views has been considered. The Court has been neglected not only by its enemies but by its friends. Two years ago, enthusiasm for this cause was at white heat. Church assemblies were passing resolutions in favor of America's entrance into the court. Little has been heard regarding this issue in recent months.

Signs are now in evidence that an increasing number of Americans are unwilling to have this important issue shelved. Senator Gillett's resolution suggesting to the president "the advisability of further exchange of views with the signatory states in order to establish whether the differences between the United States and the signatory states can be satisfactorily adjusted" will be widely welcomed throughout the country. The Church at large, it is hoped will take cognizance of this renewed interest in the World Court question."

Don't put off the fun of trying to do something for the other fellow.

Flies Are Coming!
Use SAPOLIN SCREEN ENAMEL
Easy to apply—and doesn't run
WILDER'S DRUG STORE
Masonic Temple S. Court St.

All the world lives in two tents, content or discontent.

Have Your Summer Apparel Cleaned Often.
You'll Feel Better.
BARNHILL'S
Phone 710

The moment you begin to speak of your humility there is none there.

Fly Chaser
Disinfectants
Paints Brushes
Chas. Goeller
217 E. Franklin St. Phone 925

When you feel blue or see red, let the white light of God's truth shine upon you.

Dr. O. J. Towers
DENTIST
Over Friedman's Bazaar
W. Main St.

It is not so important that we air our prejudices as that we occasionally overhaul them.

DIAMOND
Mounting and Mountings
A SPECIALTY
L. M. Butch
163 W. Main St. Phone 170

Cunning often outwits itself.

DRINK COCA-COLA
In Bottles
FRANK A. LYNCH
Distributor

Character and conduct depend upon intimate conviction.

Dollars Grow
Like Crops, in a Savings Account
Start Now.
The Third National Bank
"Where Service Predominates"
W. Main St.

Half the troubles we surmise are really blessings in disguise.

REFRESHING DRINKS
and MOORES & ROSS
ICE CREAM
Served at Our Fountain.
COOK'S
Traction Depot N. Court St.
"Save Your Coupons"

Yield to all and you will so have nothing to yield.

WIRING AND LIGHTING EQUIPMENT
Fissell Electric Co.
102 S. Pickaway St. Phone 668

Life is not a goblet to be drained; it is a measure to be filled.

BIRTHDAY CARDS
and
THOUGHTFUL GIFTS
SENSENBRENNER'S
W. Main St.

Kindness effects more than verity.

Cigars, Tobacco, Magazines, Lunch
Velvet Ice Cream
H. E. BETZ & SON.
101 E. Main St. Phone 659

Integrity cannot survive alone.

Whose BIRTHDAY Is this month? "Say It With Flowers."
MITCHELL FLORIST
Phone 44

Prayer makes religion practical.

RINEHART
Funeral Home
Prompt and Efficient Service
203 S. Scioto St. Phone 1376

Vices are their own punishment.

PURINA FEEDS
Of All Kinds.
BLUE VALLEY BUTTER
The Circleville Produce Co.
152 W. Main St. Phone 92

The drink that has outgrown seasons

Once upon a time most people thought of it only as a hot-weather drink. Then everybody learned that it is good to pause and refresh yourself regardless of weather.

Circleville Coca-Cola Bottling Works

8 million a day
IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS

Religious Education-Church Service

Sunday Services

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. G. J. Troutman, Minister
E. Mound-St.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Regular service 10:15. Sermon
"Shake of the Viper."
Sunday school at Lick Run church at 2 p. m. Regular service at 3 p. m.
Sunday school and congregational picnic Wednesday afternoon and evening.
The Lutheran Brotherhood will entertain Ashville Brotherhood at the Parish House Wednesday evening at 7:30. The Ashville Brotherhood will furnish the program.
Teachers' meeting Friday evening.
Junior choir rehearsal Thursday evening.
Intermediate choir Friday evening.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

Rev. S. W. Hiles, Minister
326 E. Main-St.
Bible school 9. J. R. Kirkpatrick, superintendent.
Morning worship at 10. Sermon "Christ's Yoke."
Christian Endeavor 6:30.
Evening service 7:30; sermon,
"The Choice of a Road."
Stoutsville campmeeting Aug.
7 to 19.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

Rev. J. S. Hamman, Pastor
W. Mound-St.
Masses at 7 and 9 o'clock.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. E. S. Toensmeier, Minister
E. Mound-St.
9:15 A. M. Bible school. H.
Stanley Lewis, assistant superintendent.
10:15 A. M. Sermon: "The Soul's Battle Royal."
Rev. J. T. Alexander, Amsterdam, Ohio, preacher.
Brief order of service.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Franklin McElfresh, Minister
E. Main-St.
Regular morning services at Methodist church with preaching by Dr. McElfresh.

CALVARY EVANGELICAL

Rev. E. A. Tovey, Minister
Cor. Mill and Washington-Sts.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Preaching at 10:15.
E. L. C. E. 6:45. Mrs. Ruby Hudnell, leader. Subject: "Personal Conviction Vs Following the Crowd."
Preaching at 7:30.
Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

HOME EDUCATION

Decay of Talent Unused
In one of the places in the city of Genoa, there is a glass case very carefully guarded. It contains a violin used by the great violinist Paganini. The violin was bequeathed to the city of Genoa, on condition that it should never be used again.

It has been preserved since then as the greatest treasure of the city. But the violin is perishing and sometime will fall to pieces.
When it was used and the touch of the bow kept in vibration, it was safe. Now that it is perfectly still it is attacked by insects which are destroying the wood.

Under the hand of its master, it gave forth the most wonderful music a violin has ever produced.
Now it is silent and useless.

What is true of this violin is true of talents and capabilities; if they are not used they will decay and be lost.

D. Carl Yoder.

Creamed Comments on the Sunday School Lesson, Paul in a Pagan Country, Acts 14:1-28 for Sunday, Aug. 5th.

A journey of about 50 miles from Antioch in Pisidia brought Paul and Barnabas to the ancient city of Iconium where they preached with great success, but met with great opposition driving them to Lystra 18 miles distant to the south. Here the cripple was healed, sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas was prevented and Paul was stoned. The next day they journeyed 20 miles to Derbe.

V. 8. "And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked." A lifetime lameness like this would render the miracle of healing a marvelous fact that could not have been performed by mere suggestion.

Vt. 9, 10. "The same heard Paul speaking; who fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, said with a loud voice, 'Stand upright on thy feet.' And he leaped up and walked." The exercise of faith is fundamental in salvation. Paul was as confident in God responding to human faith that he did not whisper but spoke with a loud

Phone 68
For Your Grocery Needs.

E. S. NEUDING
215 E. Main St.

The Ten Commandments were intended as a barricade of safety.

Dr. G. L. Hitler
DENTIST

X.RAY
Over Barrere & Nickerson
113½ W. Main St.

Jealously is a confession that the other fellow is as good or better than you are.

E. L. Crist
Attorney-at-Law
Notary Public

1224 W. Main St. Phone 362

The Church Invites You

A Sacred Memory.

Rev. Fred Smith says "There were times, doubtless, when my young spirit rebelled against going to morning church service but the significant thing is that I can not now recall them."

"The thing I remember is the fragrant memory of sitting with Dad in the family pew. He believed in church-going. He could sing on occasion. I did not particularly listen for this then. But it is significant that I remember now."

The influence for good in years to come follows church attendance. Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH
NEXT SUNDAY?

D. Carl Yoder.

VARNISHES

Fly Chaser
$1.15-$1.25 Gal.

PAINTS

$2.45 and
$3 Gal.

BRUSHES

Disinfectants
$1.15 Gal.

CHAS. F. GOELLER

Cor. Pickaway and Franklin Sts.

voice. The works of faith follow the exercise of faith and produce joy and happiness.

Vs. 11-13. "And when the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying the gods are come down upon us in the likeness of men. And the priests of Jupiter would have done sacrifice with the multitudes." The multitudes may not have understood Paul but they did understand the lame man who was healed and were willing to admit the working of a superior power which they located in Paul and would sacrifice to him as was their custom of sacrificing to their gods."

Vs. 14, 15. "But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments and sprang forth among the multitude crying out and saying, sirs, why do ye those things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto a living God who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that in them is." Not for a minute would Barnabas and Paul allow themselves to be worshipped, declaring themselves human messengers of a living God who was the true God because of what he had wrought as seen in land, sea and sky.

Vc. 16, 17. "Who in the generations gone by suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. And yet he left himself not without witness, in that he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with joy and gladness." Men are treated in a manner to allow them to exercise their freedom of choice which calls for programs where evil is possible; there is an appeal to reason in the orderly workings of nature such as seen in needed rains and fruitful seasons—there must be a God back of it all.

Vs. 19, 29. "Jews having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead;
but as the disciples stood around about him, he rose up and entered into the city." These missionaries were making shipwreck of the Jewish faith hence they were to be gotten rid of, the plan being to stone them to death. By a miracle Paul was saved and boldly returned to his task.

A Methodist Episcopal church in San Francisco is planning to erect a skyscraper church building. Part of the building will be made into a hotel with five hundred rooms.

Word has been received by the Federal Council of Churches that plans are being made to hold an International Christian Press Conference and Exhibit in Cologne, Germany, Aug. 16-22. The date immediately predicts the Prague Conference of the World Alliance for Promoting International Friendship through the churches.

It is estimated that there are 150,000 children now enrolled in classes for week-day religious instruction. Approximately 1000 cities and towns have made provision for supplementing the Sunday School instruction in this way, showing an increasing cooperation between denominations as well as with the public schools.

A petition to the pope signed by 33 cardinals and 560 bishops requests him to give his consent and blessing to the new "Feast of Christ the Worker." The aim of such a festival is to stress the dignity of labor by the example of the carpenter of Nazareth and to show to the laboring classes that the church is in sympathy with labor.

A world Youth Peace Congress will be held in Eerde, Holland,
Aug. 17-26, for the purpose of studying the abstract causes of war and to endeavor to arouse the youth of the world to action in dealing with war elimination.
Five hundred delegates are expected, 350 from Europe, 100 from the Americas and fifty from Asia, Africa and Australia. Eighty will go from the United States.

Easily won riches are often the hardest to keep.

LUMBER
MILL WORK ROOFING
PAINTS

THE PICKAWAY COUNTY
LUMBER CO.

E. Main St. Phone 13

KOLSTER
RADIOS

Are Better—Make Us Prove It

Haines-Miller

166 W. Main St. Phone 1257

PASTEURIZED MILK

and
WHIPPING CREAM

THE HOME DAIRY

Phone 767

A man is not worth his salt who is not willing to risk his life in a great cause.—Roosevelt.

Be Prepared to Keep Warm

When Winter Comes.
Let us plan your heating job
now—

Ed Crist
120 W. Main St.

The devil's best weapon is the wedge.

AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY INSURANCE
THE HOME SAVER.

S. G. Rader

Pythian Castle Phone 584

This Church Page Is Made Possible
Following Business and Professional

Ed Sensenbrenner
H. E. Betz & Son
Hummel & Plum
W. H. Albaugh Co.
Dr. G. L. Hitler
E. L. Crist
C. F. Seitz
Geo. Grand-Girard
Ed Crist
Mader & Ebert
Pickaway Lumber Co.
Haines-Miller
Chas. Goeller
The Third National Bank
S. G. Rader
Walnut St. Greenhouse

Dr. O. J. Towers
L. M. Butch
The Circleville Produce Co.
Wild's Drug Store
A. C. Cook
Fissell Electric Co.
Mitchell Florist
Dr. G. S. Corne
F. A. Lynch
E. S. Neuding
F. E. Barnhill
Fritz Bakery
The Home Dairy
Zenker Bros.
Rinehart Funeral Home

Cunning often outwits itself.

DRINK
COCA-COLA
In Bottles

FRANK A. LYNCH
Distributor

Character and conduct depend upon intimate conviction.

Dollars Grow
Like Crops, in a
Savings Account
Start Now.

The Third National Bank
"Where Service Predominates"
W. Main St.

Half the troubles we surmise are really blessings in disguise.

REFRESHING DRINKS

and MOORES & ROSS
ICE CREAM
Served at Our Fountain.

COOK'S
Traction Depot N. Court St.
"Save Your Coupons"

Yield to all and you will soon have nothing to yield.

WIRING AND LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

Fissell Electric Co.

102 S. Pickaway St. Phone 668

Life is not a goblet to be drained; it is a measure to be filled.

BIRTHDAY CARDS

and
THOUGHTFUL GIFTS

SENSENBRENNER'S

W. Main St.

Kindness effects more than verity.

Cigars, Tobacco, Magazines, Lunch
Velvet Ice Cream

H. E. BETZ & SON.

101 E. Main St. Phone 659

Integrity cannot survive alone.

Whose BIRTHDAY

Is this month?

"Say It With Flowers."

MITCHELL FLORIST

Phone 44

Prayer makes religion practical.

RINEHART
Funeral Home

Prompt and Efficient

Service

203 S. Seloto St. Phone 1376

Vices are their own punishment.

PURINA FEEDS
Of All Kinds.

BLUE VALLEY BUTTER

The Circleville

Produce Co.

152 W. Main St. Phone 92

GOLDEN CRUST BREAD

Is Your Best Food. Eat it With Every Meal.

Fritz Steam Bakery

117 E. Main St.

C. CURTAIN

OLYMPIC TEAM DOESN'T NEED SINGLE ALIBI

GETTY'S SPORTS MATTER

GRID STAR IS HERO OF U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM

T. DELL BARR

For Its Showing Abroad, Manager of U. S. Athletes Tells United Press.

By FRANK GETTY
United Press Sta Correspondent.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 4.—The United States Olympic team needs no alibis for its performances at the ninth Olympiad, General Douglas MacArthur told the United Press today, and defeats have come because competition is much keener than the United officials had expected.

"This is the greatest team the United States ever has sent to the Olympics and it needs no alibis for its failure to make a clean sweep of the track and field events," MacArthur said.

Failure of such sprint stars as Charley Paddock, Charley Borah, Frank Wykoff and Jackson Scholz was due to their meeting better men.

"Paddock at Amsterdam was just too old," the Olympic chairman said. "The class of the American sprinters is not as good as it once was."

"The competition we are meeting here surpasses our expectations but our expectations were based upon false ideas obtained from comparative times," MacArthur said. "Our lightning fast tracks enabled average performers to produce sensational and record breaking performances. There is no track in Europe, with the possible exception of England, faster than this Olympic track. Not one compares with our tracks at home."

"The real test of a runner, however, is his ability to beat the men against whom he is racing. We are being beaten here by the greatest runners in the world, and with the possible exception of one event we have been beaten by better men. Percy Williams (Canadian 100 and 200 metres champion) in my opinion is the greatest sprinter the world has ever seen and he will be even greater."

"We had raised false hopes for our sprinters who I believe Williams would have beaten in their best days. Fast tracks in the United States enabled men like Paddock and Scholz, who were at their peak nearly a decade ago, to step out and become our second and third choices whereas it must be obvious to everyone that as good as ever. The fact they are running with our best indicates the class of the American sprinters is not as good as it once was."

The Nomination papers of every candidate for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas are required by Section 4973 of the General Code of Ohio to incorporate therein the following declaration:

"That he will support and abide by the principles of his political party in such National or State platform, as may have been adopted by it prior to such primary in the year in which he is seeking such nomination or which may be subsequently adopted."

It is my intention to comply with said Section 4973, and, if elected, to also comply with my oath of office.

My Nomination papers are signed by every Democratic lawyer in this County, except the two candidates who are opposed to me and the brother and two nephews of Judge Adkins, and Meeker Terwilliger, who up to about the time said papers were filed, was reported to be a prospective candidate. No stronger endorsement could be made; no one is better qualified to judge of the qualifications of a candidate for Judge than the members of the Bar with whom he has been associated for years and who have tried cases before him ever since he has been on the Bench. They, by reason of their association with him, are better qualified to determine his fitness for office than any other body of persons. Such endorsement should of itself be sufficient to determine this question without further statement.

Several hundred men and women have served as Jurors, either grand or petit, during the time I have been Judge of this Court, and have had an opportunity to observe me and to determine my fitness and qualification for the office which I occupy; and whether or not it would be to the public interest to elect someone in my place without experience and about whose qualification there is no personal knowledge. That is a question which every voter should carefully consider.

I will, however, call attention to the following quotations, in order to aid you, in making your election.

"Don't take a good judge off the bench."
—Abraham Lincoln.

"We cannot hope for the right quality of judges if incumbents are constantly being turned out in spite of their service. Not only do frequent changes weaken the morale of the judiciary, but they throw away the benefits of judicial experience and break continuity of decision. . . . by firmly establishing a preference for fit incumbents over new contestants can we have the confidence and stability which are a necessary basis for a responsible judiciary."
—Chicago Tribune.

"The argument in favor of judges having longer terms and higher salary is, pick the best man. Give them enough salary to be independent and comfortably take care of their families. There is no higher honor in the gift of the American people than to elect a man as Judge to measure out justice in court to rich and poor, high and low, alike."
—"Put" Sandles.

SELECT THE MAN
"Be careful when you vote, that you vote for the right man for judge. The bench these days holds the key to the civic situation. It can do more than the legislative or executive branches of this government in making the state of affairs better or worse. The spirit of the law is in their hands, and so is the welfare of the people. The battle between justice and injustice, between crime and violence, between vice and morality, is made at the forum where the judge holds sway; and not the judge only, but the man that is in the judge."

"So before you vote, consider the man, not only in respect to his ability as a lawyer, but to his character as a man. What is his experience, what is the state of his courage? Are his qualities positive or only negative? These are the questions every sin-

clarence curtain.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

CLARENCE CURTAIN.

(Political Advertisement.)

C. CURTAIN

OLYMPIC TEAM DOESN'T NEED SINGLE ALIBI

For Its Showing Abroad,
Manager of U. S. Athletes Tells United Press.

By FRANK GETTY
United Press Sta Correspondent.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 4.—The United States Olympic team needs no alibi for its performances at the ninth Olympiad, General Douglas MacArthur told the United Press today, and defeats have come because competition is much keener than the United officials had expected.

"This is the greatest team the United States ever has sent to the Olympics and it needs no alibi for its failure to make a clean sweep of the track and field events," MacArthur said.

Failure of such sprint stars as Charley Paddock, Charley Borah, Frank Wykoff and Jackson Scholz was due to their meeting better men.

"Paddock at Amsterdam was just too old," the Olympic chairman said. "The class of the American sprinters is not as good as it once was."

"The competition we are meeting here surpasses our expectations but our expectations were based upon false ideas obtained from comparative times," MacArthur said. "Our lightning fast tracks enabled average performers to produce sensational and record breaking performances. There is no track in Europe, with the possible exception of England, faster than this Olympic track. Not one compares with our tracks at home."

"The real test of a runner, however, is his ability to beat the men against whom he is racing. We are being beaten here by the greatest runners in the world, and with the possible exception of one event we have been beaten by better men. Percy Williams (Canadian 100 and 200 metres champion) in my opinion is the greatest sprinter the world has ever seen and he will be even greater."

"We had raised false hopes for our sprinters who I believe Williams would have beaten in their best days. Fast tracks in the United States enabled men like Paddock and Scholz, who were at their peak nearly a decade ago, to step out and become our second and third choices whereas it must be obvious they can not be as good as ever. The fact they are running with our best indicates the class of the American sprinters is not as good as it once was."

BOXING

NEW YORK—Iszy Schwartz, flyweight champion of the world, knocked out Little Jeff, of Baltimore, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10 round bout here last night. The Baltimore midweight was no match for the champion and Schwartz' superiority was evident from the start.

NEW YORK—Iszy Schwartz, neapolitan lightweight, outpointed Ray Miller, Chicago, in a 10 round bout here last night. Tut carried a seven pound advantage in weight and had the better of the going throughout.

(Standings on Page Five)

cere and intelligent voter should get an answer to before he goes to the polls. These are the issues that are presented by a non-partisan ballot, and they are issues that every intelligent voter will meet squarely. So don't go behind the bush and ask who is the Democrat or who is the Republican, but who is the true, upright, broad-minded man?"

—Ohio State Journal.

"Experience acquired in fit performance is the best qualification and guaranty for future service."

—Put Sandles.

SELECT THE MAN

"Be careful when you vote, that you vote for the right man for judge. The bench these days holds the key to the civic situation. It can do more than the legislative or executive branches of this government in making the state of affairs better or worse. The spirit of the law is in their hands, and so is the welfare of the people. The better between justice and injustice, between crime and morality, is made at the forum where the judge holds sway; and not the judge only, but the man that is in the judge."

"So before you vote, consider the man, not only in respect to his ability as a lawyer, but to his character as a man. What is his experience, what is the state of his courage? Are his qualities positive or only negative? These are the questions every sin-

GETTY'S SPORTS MATTER

Lump the six of them together and they will weigh 1,280 pounds. They are the Goliaths of the diamond, the fat boys of baseball.

First in the hearts of his countrymen comes Babe Ruth whose 210 pounds are strung out over 6 feet, 2 inches of height. When you see Babe waddle out to his position in right field you wonder how he manages to field and run the bases. The secret lies in his legs, which are modelled after those of a greyhound. Most of Ruth's bulk is concentrated above the belt; it lies in his arms and shoulders which provide the propelling power for his home runs. The Babe's pudgy face heightens the impression that he is fat, but in reality he is the fastest big man in baseball.

Roy Fothergill isn't big; he's immense. "Fatty" is his nickname and he deserves it. Every March Fothergill is faced with the problem of losing 30 pounds. Usually he goes to Hot Springs, Ark., boils off about 15 pounds, and depends on Spring training to take off the rest of his excess weight. Despite his fatness, Fothergill is a terrific hitter. His normal weight is about 200 pounds.

Trunk Strap For Belt.

When Shanty Hogan reported to the New York Giants after he had been obtained in the trade which sent Rogers Hornsby to Boston, they couldn't find a belt big enough for him. McGraw finally handed Hogan a trunk strap and told him to make a belt out of it. Hogan is one of the heaviest men who ever donned a mask and mitt. His 220 pounds make it necessary for him to hit a triple if he wants to get to second base.

But the mammoth of the mall is Garland Buckeye, the pitcher who was released by the Giants to Toledo of the American Association the other day. Buckeye did a "Sam Vick." In other words, he ate himself out of the major leagues. Sam Vick was the first ball player to do that and when he passed, all he left in the big league was a handy phrase which has been used ever since. Buckeye weighs 235 pounds.

Heilmann Over 200.

Like Ruth, Harry Heilmann of the Detroit Tigers is over the 200-pound mark, but it is chisly muscle and bone. Heilmann, who has seen many baseball summers dawn and die, is one of the most dangerous of the long line of dangerous hitters that have worked for the Tigers. His 205 pounds send many a ball rattling against the fence.

Brooklyn contributes Jumbo Elliott, who is 200 pounds of good pitching material. Last year he was one of the most effective men on Wilbert Robinson's high-powered staff, but this season he is having his troubles.

In fact, most of the fat boys are having their troubles this year. The passing of Buckeye to Toledo already has been chronicled. Hogan is doing only a fair job for the Giants, and since McGraw acquired Bob O'Farrell, Shanty hasn't had much chance to work.

Heilmann's customary place is among the first five hitters in the American League, but this year he is trailing along down in the ruck. He probably will improve, for he has always been a late starter, needing the heat of August to thaw out his elephantine frame. Fothergill also should be hitting better than he is, although he has never recovered the form he had three years ago.

Ruth, of course, is Ruth.

DRY CLEANING AND LAUNDRY

"IN OUR OWN PLANT"

F. E. BARNHILL,
Phone 710

--40--
DEALERS

In Pickaway
County Know

CRYSTAL MIST
and CRYSTAL MIST
ETHYL

Is Good Gasoline—

Do You?

Distributed by

THE CIRCLEVILLE
OIL CO.
"A Home Concern."
Phone 157.

NEW HOLLAND TO PLAY HERE WITH EAGLES

Veteran Lee Downs Expected To Start On Mound For Circleville Team.

The Circleville Eagle Ball club will receive the acid test Sunday when the New Holland boys come here to do battle.

The New Hollanders are boasting of the best team they have placed into the field for many years and they come here with the reputation of having swept aside all opposition so far this season.

A large delegation of fans will follow their team here from the western part of the county and indications point to a game that will be hotly contested by both teams and fans.

The local grounds have been placed in first class condition and arrangements are being made to care for a large crowd.

Several new stars have fixed their names to Eagle contracts the past week and fans will see a good ball team in action when the local team takes the field Sunday afternoon.

The veteran, Lee Downs, will perhaps be the starting local pitcher with Davis receiving his slants. This pair makes up one of the best batteries that has worked for a Circleville ball team in many years. Davis looks to be the best young catcher to come out of Pickaway-co. since the days when Ezra Hedges donned a uniform. This lad has a lightning arm and possesses a world of ability.

Other men who are expected to sparkle in Sunday's game, are, First Baseman Pettibone and Shortstop Trego. These two boys are real sluggers and no doubt they will cause the New Holland pitchers plenty of trouble.

NOTICE

Excursion Rates

Circleville, Ohio, to South Portsmouth, Ky. . . $1.45
Circleville, Ohio, to Russell, Ky. 2.05
Circleville, Ohio, to Ashland, Ky. 2.10
Circleville, Ohio, to Huntington, W. Va. 2.45

2% Off on Round Trip Tickets.

Round Trip, Circleville, Ohio, to Huntington, W. Va. $3.92

Busses leave Circleville, Ohio, at 7:20 A. M., 9:20 A. M., 10:20 A. M., 11:20 A. M., 1:20 P. M., 3:20 P. M., 4:20 P. M., 5:20 P. M., 6:20 P. M., 8:10 P. M.

RIDE WITH US.

Interstate Motor Transit Co.

U. S. HOLDS BIG LEAD IN OLYMPICS

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 4.—Standings of countries by points in Olympiad at the end of the sixth day of competition:

United States—142.
Finland—64.
Great Britain—40.
Sweden—37.
Germany—34.
Canada—33.
Japan—15.
South Africa—14.
Ireland—10.
France—10.
Norway—7.
Hungary—5.
Haiti—5.
Italy—4.
Philippines—3.
Switzerland—1.
Holland—1.

WHAT BIG STARS DID YESTERDAY

Babe Ruth: Went hitless in four times at bat.

Lou Gehrig: Singled in two times at bat.

Harry Heilmann: Singled in four times at bat. Scored one run.

Ty Cobb: Went hitless in one time at bat.

Rogers Hornsby: Went hitless in three times at bat.

Paul Waner: Singled in five times at bat. Scored one run.

Frank Frisch: Doubled and singled in four times at bat. Scored two runs.

Hack Wilson: Went hitless in four times at bat. Scored one run, one stolen base.

Although outbitt by the Chicago White Sox the Boston Red Sox scored a 3 to 1 win over Tommy Thomas. His wildness proved his undoing, walking five batters.

The game will be called at 2:30 p. m., and will be in charge of an association umpire.

Don't miss this game for it is sure to be a good one.

Baseball

Yesterday's hero—Fred Lindstrom, New York Giant third baseman, whose home run in the ninth with Mel Ott on second, gave the Giants a 7 to 5 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The New York Yankees were able to make only six scattered hits off Sam Gray, the Browns winning 8 to 0 and taking the first series from the world's champions since 1926. This was the third series played by the Yankees on the western trip and the third lost. Their lead in the pennant race, which had been reduced to four and one-half games, suffered no further reduction, as the Indians defeated the Athletics. O'Rourke led the attack on Hoyt and Thomas, hitting a triple, a double and a single in three times at bat.

A four run rally by the New York Giants in the eighth overcame a three run lead held by the Cincinnati Reds. A double by Picinich and a single by Ford tied the count at five all in the ninth frame. Lindstrom's homer with Ott on second, winning for the Giants 7 to 5 in their half of the ninth. Hogan's homer in the eighth was responsible for four runs for the Giants.

Connie Mack used eighteen players in a vain effort to stop the Cleveland Indians. The tribe scored six runs in the third inning, winning 9 to 5. J. Sewell had a perfect day at bat with four hits in four tries.

Sherdel's masterful pitching enabled the Cards to defeat the Boston Braves 5 to 1. Five scattered hits was the best the Braves could do with his offerings. Bottomley and Hafey led the Cards at bat with three hits apiece.

The Pittsburgh Pirates had an easy time winning over the Phillies 14 to 6. Home runs by Schulte and Brickell accounted for seven of the Corsair's runs. Pie Traynor hit three singles and two doubles. Both teams used three pitchers.

The Chicago Cubs went into third place by winning over the Brooklyn Robins 8 to 5. Del Bosonette obtained four hits and figured in four runs made by the Robins. The Cubs made seven runs off Elliott and Koupal in the third frame. Gabby Hartnett's home run tied the score in the third after the Robins had taken a one run lead.

(Political Advertisement.)

Mrs. Helen Black Anderson

Seeking election for Woman Member State Republican Committee for 11th Congressional District, composed of Ross, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry and Pickaway Counties.

Chairman Women's Republican Committee, Pickaway County, past eight years.

Endorsed as present candidate State Central Committeewoman by all Republican County Committees of 11th Congressional District and by all delegates to State Convention of said district.

Republican Primary, Aug. 14.

Your support appreciated.

GRID STAR IS HERO OF U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM

Ray Barbuti Made Great Run
In Winning 400-Meter Race From Canadian.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 4.—New cheer ruled the ranks of the United States Olympic team today after the spectacular way in which Ray Barbuti, the husky Syracuse University football star, lunged to victory in the 400 metres yesterday.

Barbuti's performance will go down in the history of international sport as one of the greatest single achievements. He had been given the race. Then James Ball, one of those indomitable Canadians, challenged.

He pounded up behind Barbuti. The great stadium was tense. Everyone had conceded that the United States was about to show her runners had not drifted so far back. Then they watched Ball close up perilously.

But Barbuti was equal. Just at the finish he lunged. It was a lunge similar to those he used when smashing opposition lines for the Syracuse team last fall. He broke the tape within a fraction of the Olympic record and the United States had won its first track victory of this present Olympiad.

"I heard him coming up," Barbuti said after the race in referring to Ball's gallant attempt. "I just let go with everything I had and dove for the tape."

Today the United States chances rest entirely with the decathlon team with that event due to be completed. James Stewart of the Los Angeles A. C. made the most impressive showing yesterday his performances in the 100 metres and the high jump holding him a place among the husky foreign leaders. Kenneth Dougherty of Michigan, Barney Berlinger of Pennsylvania U. and Tom Burchill of Oklahoma are the other American decathlon entrants.

There seems little or no chance for the United States in the 3,000 metres steeple chase which probably will be another Finnish victory with Loukola favored to win over his countrymen, Willie Rittola and Paavo Nurmi. It is highly doubtful that the latter will compete.

AH, HA! AH, HA!

Three Circleville citizens tried to beat their breakfast bills this morning at the Betz restaurant but Roof and Smith were onto their job and one armed with a murderous looking gun, the other with a policeman's baton soon rounded up the men and secured their money.

Will You Be Prepared

When cold weather comes?

Order the repair parts NOW for your heating stove or range, to be sure it's ready for use when needed.

Now is the best time to trade in your old stove on one of the newer and more economical types, and get a Liberal Allowance

J. R. Wilson

'Home Equipment Store.'
112 E. Main St.

What Does the IGNITION SYSTEM

Mean To Your Automobile?

The motor, rear axle, and other mechanical parts of your automobile are of vital importance to its operation. But these parts can not function properly without the ignition system in good working order. The Ignition System is a complicated set of wiring, etc., to the average driver, and should have the scientific attention of a specialist, when needing repair.

We have a fully equipped shop to handle all kinds of battery and ignition work, which assures you satisfactory repair and perfect operation from the electrical system on your automobile.

Bring your car in and we'll check the ignition system for you.

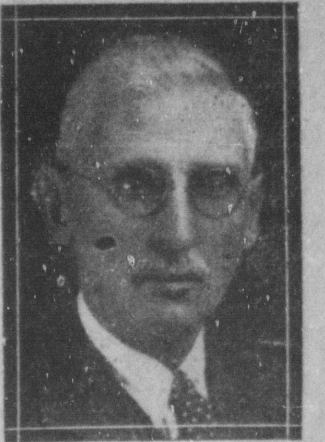

L. H. COATE

219 E. Main St. Phone 21.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

(Political Advertisement.)

T. DELL BARR

T. Dell Barr, Democratic Candidate for Treasurer of Pickaway County, Ohio. Subject to the decision of the Democratic Primary Election to be held Tuesday, August 14th, 1928.

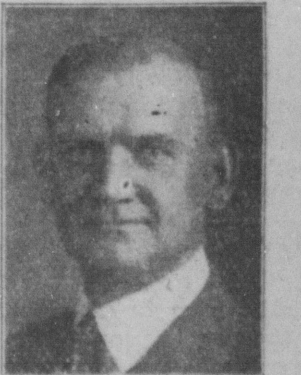

I have been a resident of Pickaway County for 31 years, and for the same number of years engaged in business in Tilton, Ohio.

I have always given of my time and means through service on both the Central and Executive Committees of the Democratic Party, to promote the success of the Party, and if nominated and elected I pledge to the people of the County an honest and efficient administration of the office of County Treasurer to which I aspire.

I earnestly solicit the support of all Democrats.

(Political Advertisement.)

(Political Advertisement.)

Walter J. Marion, Democratic candidate for re-election to the State Legislature, asks your support on his record as Representative for Pickaway County during his first term. Your support will be appreciated.

(Political Advertisement.)

E. A. BROWN, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PROBATE JUDGE OF PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO.

The office of Probate Judge is one of the most important offices within the County; it has grown within the past years very extensively; the Court now has jurisdiction in divorce and alimony, partition and dower cases, in determining inheritance tax, in criminal cases, condemnation cases, as well as juvenile cases, settlement of estates and guardianships, and in assignments, trustee and receivership matters.

Frequently questions arise in matters of large estates under complex wills and complex pleadings wherein the best lawyers are employed on the different sides, presenting different views of the law; questions of pleadings, the competency of evidence, the charge of the Court, and others are constantly arising in Probate matters which require the Judge to have a knowledge of the law and experience in determining the issues raised in order that justice may be done.

E. A. Brown has had experience in Probate matters, having some years ago filled the office of Probate Court, and has had experience as a practitioner before the Court; he has practiced law for 31 years. There are three offices within the County which should be filled by an attorney; that is, the two judgeships, and the prosecuting attorney's office.

If nominated and elected Judge Brown will try earnestly and conscientiously to fill the office creditably and for the best interest of the public.

Your vote is solicited at the coming primary.

Circleville and Pickaway-Co
First, Last and Always

The Circleville Herald
A Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established in 1882, and The Daily Union-Herald, Established in 1894.
PUBLISHED EVENINGS EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE CLEVELAND PUBLISHING COMPANY
ARTHUR A. HOOPINGARNER, PRESIDENT
NORMAN W. RALSTON, EDITOR AND GENERAL MANAGER
KARL J. BERTHMAN, ADVERTISING MANAGER
HARRY J. WELLS, CIRCULATION MANAGER
A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER
Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, as Second Class Matter.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Mail—$4 for One Year, $2.25 for Six Months, $1.25 for Three Months, 50c for One Month.
Delivered by Carrier—15 Cents a Week; $6 a Year Paid in Advance.

The RAMBLER
A POEM FOR TODAY
By NORMAN W. RALSTON
CRAVING
I crave the lesser things of life,
Perhaps the song of some young bird
To carry me through all this strife—
Give me a kindly word.
A smile to brighten up my day,
The handclasp of a friend
And his advice to light my way
I crave until the end.
Some seek the pleasures gold will bring,
But wealth is not in money,
Of simple joys here would I sing,
To sip the "gold" of honey.
Who cares for wealth and wealth alone
Will miss the greatest joy of living
For his weak life has smaller grown
If he has stored and failed in giving.
Just take the lesser things and smile,
Then dig away for greater treasure,
You'll find that living is worthwhile
In simply toiling for your measure.

BIBLE THOUGHT
STRANGE BEDFELLOWS—The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.—Prov. 26:16.
PRAYER—God help us to be workers with Thee, and ever diligent in business.
FAITH AND CYNICISM
Ernest Boyd writes a spirited defense of cynicism in the current issue of Harper's Magazine. The cynic, he says, is the man disillusioned about human nature. He does not expect too much; indeed, he usually expects the worst, since he knows that is what mankind so often produces. Thus he is seldom or never disappointed. Life does not continually jar him.
This, believes Mr. Boyd, is an enviable state. The cynic, as he sees him, is not a bitter discouraged person; he is one whose enjoyment of life is all the greater because he is too wise to look for more than he will get.
Probably this is all very true. Yet the world cannot do with too many cynics. Especially it cannot do with them in the high places. Its great need is for people who dare to expect the best, not the worst; people who can retain a deep faith in human nature in spite of Chicago gang wars, Philadelphia primaries, New York night clubs and Hollywood publicity seekers.
For faith, after all, can move mountains. It is a lie that we cannot lift ourselves by our own bootstraps. We have been doing it for many centuries, and we must continue to do it. Cynicism is a fine armor for the man who does not dare face the unpleasant shocks of life, but it is next to useless for the big jobs of the world. Idealism, preferably of the impractical, visionary kind, is what is needed.
If you do not expect too much of human nature you will never ask too much of it. And it is the great askers—the men and women who demand that their fellows transcend their limitations of selfishness, blindness and timidity—that push the world forward.
Cynicism would have helped Washington endure his squabbles with the Continental Congress, the grasping Tory traders and the self-seeking army officers with much more comfort. It would have made Valley Forge more bearable. But it would not have won the Revolution. That took visionary idealism that could persist in spite of plain common sense.
Likewise a cynical Lincoln would have been happier than the gaunt idealist who occupied the White House from 1861 to 1865; happier, and less successful. For the world somehow does not respond to cynicism. It demands ideals, even if it fouts them. Seeing as through a glass, darkly, it nevertheless can recognize that which is higher than itself; and in the fullness of time, it will follow it.
This is especially true in a democracy, like ours. To the cynic the problems of democracy are insoluble. They call for an impossible improvement in human nature. Yet they will be solved in time; solved because they will be from time to time. Lincoln, Roosevelt and Wilson who dare appeal to their fellows to do the impossible.

RADIO
SATURDAY
WEAF NETWORK—830 EDST—730 EST—630 CST—Lewisohn Stadium Concert, Bernardino Molinari Conducting.
WJZ NETWORK—830 EDST—730 EST—630 CST—Goldman Band Concert.
WOR NEWARK (422)—9 EDST—8 EST—7 CST—WOR's Playhouse.
WSB ATLANTA (476) 1245 A M CST—Red Head Club.
WDAF KANSAS CITY (370)—145 A M EDST—1245 PST—1145 CST—Nighthawks.
SUNDAY
WEAF HOOK-UP—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Atwater Kent Hour.
WEAF HOOK-UP—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—Capitol Theatre Program.
WJZ NETWORK—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Goldman Band.
WJZ NETWORK—1015 EDST—915 EST—815 CST—National Symphony Orchestra.
WPG ATLANTIC CITY—(273)—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Opera Concert.
MONDAY
WJZ NETWORK—930 EDST—830 EST—730 CST—"Real Folks."
WOR NETWORK—9 EDST—8 EST—7 CST—United Opera Company.
WEAF NETWORK—930 EDST—830 EST—730 CST—General Motors Hour.
WJZ NETWORK—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—Rox's Gang.
WGNY SCHENECTADY (380)—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—General Electric Hour.
SOUTHERN OHIO IS
AFTER COOLER WAVE
CLEVELAND, Aug. 4.—Thunder showers were expected to bring relief today from the heat wave which claimed three lives in Cleveland Friday and set a new high mark of the season at 91 degrees.
Victims of the heat were:
Gordon E. Whitney, 60; Lakewood.
George Merkle, 45.
Miss Lucile Carr, 25.
Six deaths from the heat were reported throughout the state.
WOMAN 95, DIES
GALLIPOLIS, O., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Mary Hanson, 95, oldest citizen of this city, died here suddenly today. She was the mother of Dr. James T. Hanson, one of the city's oldest physicians.

Love's Ecstasy
by May Christie

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.
ALEDA RAY, pretty blue-eyed country girl, working as a stenographer in New York, is in love with Gary Chester, young engineer. Alela is living at the home of Marise de Rense, proprietor of the Harvest Moon cabaret. Marise, elderly and hard-working, is infatuated with Clive Mortimer, ne'er-do-well Englishman. The latter, petting Goldie de Rense, young sister of Marise, to join him in a blackmailing scheme, planning to have her operate a flower shop which in reality would be a private "post office."
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.
CHAPTER XX.
ALEDA—her heart singing with happiness—awoke to a new day in the little sunlit bedroom of Marise's house. There, on the dressing-table, wrapped in tissue-paper, lay the handsome pair of gloves. On the previous night they had arrived mysteriously. The package had contained no card or message. But that the gift had come from Gary Chester, the recipient was certain.
"You've been kissing some man, and this is the forfeit!" Goldie had crudely cried out.
Into Alela's mind had swept the recollection of that kiss, upstated! So Gary—despite the concussion following on the accident—had remembered!
This was his way of showing his remembrance—and appreciation! The fact that no card had been included with the gift displayed his delicacy!
"He's sensitive, like I am!" Before Alela's mind stretched glittering peaks of joy. Between herself and this attractive Gary was a "something," drawing them mutually to each other. It was not for nothing, that quaint and thrilling meeting in the Adirondacks! And hadn't Fate now thrown them together a second time?
Last night he had asked her for her address, on parting with her. It must have been his plan then to think about that kiss... given far away... given by a sudden impulse that she thought was pity, but now knew was something deeper... how she had been drawn irresistibly to that pale, unconscious face!
"He's the handsomest man I've ever seen! He's far and away the most attractive!" She lay back on the pillows for a luxurious moment, flinging both arms above her head, and stretching blissfully.
Alela had known few men in her young life. Up in the north, even with her dainty appearance in the ear to the nearest town for her short-hand lessons—there had been few social contacts, and she had lived quietly, with no great thrills, and at the same time no great sorrows, or indeed any excitement.
She donned a gown and a waist with a frilly collar. Her dark blue suit was neatly pressed. Down on her curly head she drew the small blue hat that she seemed to plain and prim. Her day was adjusted to a comfortable angle. She tucked her hair above each ear, bringing it forward so that it made her eyes more shadowy. She dabbed a fluff of powder on her pretty, rounded cheeks, her nose and chin. (Alela's apple-blossom skin required no touch of color.)
Then, catching up the gauntlet gloves (she'd wear them, even though they were too good for daily use, because she was certain she would see the donor!)—Alela ran downstairs for breakfast to the dining-room.
The table wasn't set. Marise called from the kitchen: "That good-for-nothing maid hasn't shown up yet! Come on in here! I'm making the coffee!"
Meals—especially in the morning—were apt to be sketchy and uncertain in Marise's house. But Alela's thoughts were not upon her appetite. She sat on the edge of the kitchen table, a dainty, sprightly figure, eating a sugared bun, and sipping the hot liquid. She listened to Marise's complaints with outward sympathy, but the doleful recital could find no reflection on her own happy face.
"It seems as though everything in life went against me!" said Marise. Even in the artificial light of the basement, her skin looked tired and yellow. There she shadows all about her eyes. Alela, looking enviously at Alela: "My! but you're young—and fresh as a daisy!"
Alela laughed softly, glanced at her wrist-watch, whistled. "Geel! I must run, or I'll be getting the air from William B. Lingard!"
"From whom? What's that?" What did you say?" Marise rapped out the words like pistol shots. Her eyes were staring. Her hand that held the cup shook violently, so that some of the coffee spilled upon the table. Alela saw that her unruffled lips had suddenly gone white. "Did—did you say—Lingard?"
"Yes, Wall Street... a word."
"Why, yes! I thought I'd told you? My boss is William B. Lingard?"
"Yes, Wall Street... a financier. Do you know him?" Alela was startled at Marise's fixed stare, the sudden tension of her body.
"Know him? Good God! Is he—is he—about 45 years of age? Handsome... with a Roman nose... and a jutting chin... a sort of eagle face?"
"That's him—exactly!" exclaimed Alela. "What—what is it, Marise?" She was concerned at the other's sudden pallor and queer air. "Why've you met him, you say?"
"Marise's cup slipped from her lips, splashing and clattering. She gave a tiny moan as her head fell sideways and she slipped to the floor.
(Continued Tomorrow.)

CO-OP MARKET IS JUST NEW RECTOR SAYS

But a Business Institution, Circleville Man Says Over Radio.

"Cooperative marketing of live stock is a comparatively modern movement in American agriculture. It is a business institution, working under a plan which has been gradually accepted as practical and best fitted to meet the varied and multiple problems of the live stock industry. It can only succeed with close relationship between management and membership," said E. C. Rector, Circleville, in a radio talk broadcast from WAIU, Columbus, sponsored by the Ohio Live Stock Cooperative Association Friday.
"Progress has been remarkable during the past 10 years. Co-operative associations are now numbered by the thousands, membership by the hundreds of thousands and volume of business by the millions."
"Experience has given us better management and a sounder financial basis of operation. Unity in marketing was the first goal of cooperation. Unity in production was later presented as a problem of equal importance. The farmer and feeder having successfully established their own marketing system did not hesitate when economic conditions produced the new problems of production in the live stock industry."
"The National Producers Feeder Pool was organized to meet this new condition. The problem was national in its scope and a national organization was needed. The National Feeder Pool is just as truly cooperative and representative as a local or county live stock association. It is farmer-owned and farmer-controlled by the individual members through direct representatives selected by themselves."

MRS. JENNIE POWELL HAS OLD PAPERS
Mrs. Jennie Powell, formerly of Circleville, recently found some old newspapers that had belonged to her grandfather, T. F. Kraft, who died in 1874. These papers are dated away back before most people living now, can remember.
Among them are Circleville papers of March 12, 1867, and Nov. 22, 1869, with every letter set by hand. One of these papers carries a speech of Hon. S. S. Cox, on the "dangers of the negroes ruling the South, following the Civil War." From the text, this appeared to be a weighty question at that time.
Many of the advertisements of these papers contain such names as Mrs. E. Bayer, Milliner; Wolfley and Shulze; Marfield's bank; Old's Bookstore; Jacob Long, an undertaker and carriage maker. Another paragraph of interest was the description of the marriage of Miss Belle Florence, daughter of Elias Florence, to Rev. E. Owen Simpson. Miss Lizzie Crouse was the maid of honor. That was more than 51 years ago. The wedding must have been the very last word in marriages, according to those times.
The other old newspapers are especially valuable. They are editions of the Washington Daily Globe, the official paper of congress following the Civil war, and they contain some of the historic speeches made in congress during that period. One discussion included the facts that the rebel states had never dreamed of being admitted to the Union as equals, but expected to be treated as conquered provinces.
The Feb. 12, 1864, edition, has some dispatches from General Grant, dated 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. He said "we have now ended the 6th day of heavy fighting. The result is very much in our favor." Gun boats were being blown up in the Appomattox by rebels. There were on the front page the lists of wounded soldiers to be found in the various hospitals, having arrived on the Potomac steamers.
These newspapers are among the few that have been saved from that strenuous period after the Civil war, and are to be treasured because of their value now, and because of their greater worth as the decades pass by.

Quits Calles Calles
Openly accused with other leaders of the Mexican Labor party of being one of the "intellectual authors" of General Alvaro Obregon's assassination, Luis N. Morones, ministry of industry, has tendered his resignation to President Calles. He denied sympathy with Obregon opposition.
WHOOPING IT UP.
TOLEDO, O., Aug. 4.—Hear, Commissioner Paul F. Orr issued a statement Saturday warning parents that whooping cough cases in Toledo have increased from 32 to 46 during the last week. He appealed for co-operation with his department check spread of the disease.

"The function of the Pool is mainly that of direct contact between the ranchman and corn belt feeder, bringing these two great interests closer together under a plan satisfactory and profitable to both. The ranchmen are eager, and willing to cooperate and dispose of their entire offerings for distribution through one organization. Organizations of ranchmen in different range territory are willing to work as cooperative organizations in promoting the Feeder Pool. They are not only willing to cooperate in selling collectively but will help finance the operation by helping share the cost of distribution. The Pool plan of buying collectively very materially lowers the cost per head of buying and distributing. The help of the ranchman in meeting the cost still further reduces the cost of operation."
"Picture with me the farmer with a very limited acreage needing but a few head of feeders having offered to him through organization the opportunity of buying those few head direct from a ranchman with thousands of feeders for sale. The cooperative ranchman who has produced these feeders in the vast range territory gathers them in with a great round-up and delivers them under contract to an agreed loading point. Here they are graded and sorted by a representative of the Feeder Pool who pays the ranchman for the cattle and then has them loaded as a solid train of feeders and star'd for the corn belt traveling eastward as a live stock special making the time equal to that of a transcontinental flyer. The National Pool immediately draws draft for the stock on the Producer Association or the cooperative company through which the order originated.
"When the train reaches some point in the corn belt it is broken up and distributed to the various unloading points. Notification is then sent the county association through which the orders were placed of the probable time of arrival and draft drawn on the county association for the amount due for the feeders. When the exact time of arrival is known the manager of the association notifies the purchasers by telephone. The farmers, who combined their orders, send or drive to the unloading station, receive the desired number, pay for them, and in a few hours have them in their own feed lots. Only a few days from among thousands on one range to a car load or even less in many feedlots."

THIS AND THAT
(Continued from page one.)
in Mrs. Letherman's actions in matter. A mother's love for a child should be greater in life than in death. There is always chance in the world. No one seems so unfortunate but what we look about us we can see of others suffering a worse plight. Courage to try is a great quality.
LODGES
KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS
Philos Lodge No. 64
Regular meeting every Monday, at 8:00 p. m.
Visiting brothers always welcome.
S. L. WARNER
K. of R. C.
CURTIS BURKHEAD, C. C.

DIET AND EXERCISE BEST WAY TO REDUCE

This Business of Using Powerful Drugs Is Not Merely Ineffective But May Impair the Health.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

ISN'T it a strange thing that tortures human beings will submit in order to get thin and willowy, or to add flesh so as to be plump? More medicines have been sold for their alleged value in changing the figure than for all the real ailments of the human family.
Not long ago I was a guest at a dinner party. My charming hostess had a great, crescent-shaped black and blue mark on her upper arm. Feeling that I might be asking an embarrassing question I did not inquire what had happened! but he saw my glance and the interrogation in my eyes.
Then she told me the story of going to "doctor" who proposed to "reduce" her by hypodermic administration of some "serum." Who the reason for this is not because she too sensible advice and decided to reduce by the natural methods—by eating less and exercising more.
I am more and more concerned over the women who dose themselves with powerful drugs which have a reputed value in taking off the fat. Dear friends, it isn't safe to do this. You cannot afford to trifle with your good health by such methods.
Well chosen, systematically employed, physical exercises are great value. But they are of no use unless used every single day, with energy sufficient to produce "sweat." Simply to perspire is not enough—one can do that in a room. You must produce perspiration by the energy of the muscular effort you make. Perspiration of this sort seems actually to dissolve the fat.
You must learn to make a wise selection of your foods. It is not necessary to starve yourself or to grow weak from the need of food. When you study food values it does not take long to find out what substances must be taken sparingly because they are rich in fats or carbohydrates. At the same time you will learn which foods may be taken in unlimited quantities.
It is a common mistake for fleshy persons to think they cannot drink water. All the water the system craves may be taken in safety. It is unwise to drink much at meals. The reason for this is not because the water "dilutes the gastric juices," but because drinking quantities of water helps you to swallow more food than you need. It is food you never would take if it had to be not through the process of chewing and mixing with the saliva to prepare it for swallowing.
Water helps to dissolve the wastes and to put into solution materials which should be taken from the body. Some of the wastes which may retard the assimilative processes and this may assist the addition of fat.
Don't take drugs to get thin, but use common sense and the natural methods.

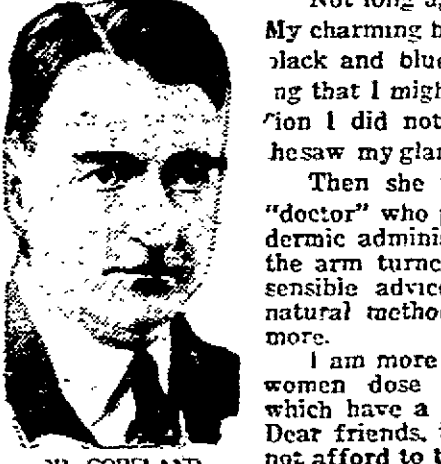

Answers to Health Queries
W. G. L. Q.—What will clear a seat or intestinal worms in children as well as adults?
A.—Careful diet, avoiding sweets and keeping the intestinal tract clear will help—treatment is also necessary in most instances. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.
F. J. Q.—How much should a girl who is 14 years old and 5' 5" in tall?
A.—For her age and height, she should weigh about 120 pounds.
Z.—Freckles may be made noticeable by applying equal parts of lemon juice and peroxide. Rub this gently massaging with good cold cream, as it likely prove drying to the skin.
P. H. Q.—What causes large red under the eyes and how can the condition be corrected?
A.—May be due to intestinal disturbance. Worms or loss of sleep. Examination will determine if necessary treatment. Keeping system clear may bring about improvement. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. Cleveland, 1934, Cleveland Journal Star.

Court News

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR
John E. Millhous was appointed administrator of the estate of Geo. W. Millhous. The estate is estimated to be worth $1,050,000 and which $80 is personal.
C. A. Leist, Fred Nicholas and Milt Morris were appointed appraisers.
JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION
C. A. Jones, receiver of The First National Bank of Mt. Sterling, has secured judgment against Mart Goings for $1,500.84.

SAYS COOPER WILL LEAD G. O. P. FORCES

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati, is certain of the Republican nomination for governor, Harry D. Silver, campaign manager for Cooper, claimed in a statement today. "Careful analysis of reports coming into Cooper headquarters indicates that today Cooper would carry more than fifty counties for governor," Silver said.
"Before primary date, additional counties now considered doubtful will be added to the number which we regard as absolutely safe."

DR. COPELAND

THE POWER TRUST PROBE
A big middle western newspaper runs a story by its Washington correspondent saying that the federal trade commission's investigation of the power trust "has failed of its purpose," and protesting that public money is being spent on its continuation.
Maybe the investigation has failed, for all we know. It does seem, though, as if it was worth all it cost to find out how the utility barons are spreading propaganda throughout the nation. A few of these revelations about doctored text books were, to our notion, highly important.
It is hard to see just wherein the investigation has been a flop. To us it seems as if the country has got its money's worth out of it.
A CAPTAIN'S SUICIDE
Dispatches from Chile regarding the loss of the Chilean transport Angamos, which hit a rock and sank with 300 on board, say that when the ship's captain, Juan Williams, found himself unable to prevent the catastrophe he committed suicide on the steamer's bridge.
One can easily understand that a captain might be unnerved at the prospect of a shipwreck that would cost many lives. Yet Capt. Suarez hardly acted in the best traditions of the sea.
Maritime records are full of the tales of captains who went down with their ships. The stern rules of the sea require a captain to do all he can for the safety of ship, passengers and crew, thinking of himself last of all. The underwater ghosts of the old-time shipwreckers, lolling in Davy Jones' locker, will hardly award a place of honor to this Chilean ship master who lost his head.

The Circleville Herald

A Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established in 1882, and The Daily Union-Herald, Established in 1894.

PUBLISHED EVENINGS EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY

ARTHUR A. HOOPINGARNER, PRESIDENT.
NORMAN W. RALSTON, EDITOR AND GENERAL MANAGER.
KARL J. HERMANN, ADVERTISING MANAGER.
HARRY E. WELLS, CIRCULATION MANAGER.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER
Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, as Second Class Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Mail—$4 for One Year, $2.25 for Six Months, $1.25 for Three Months, 60c for One Month.
Delivered by Carrier—15 Cents a Week; $6 a Year Paid in Advance.

BIBLE THOUGHT

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS—The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.—Prov. 26:16.

PRAYER—God help us to be workers with Thee, and ever diligent in business.

FAITH AND CYNICISM

Ernest Boyd writes a spirited defense of cynicism in the current issue of Harper's Magazine. The cynic, he says, is the man disillusioned about human nature. He does not expect too much; indeed, he usually expects the worst, since he knows that is what mankind so often produces. Thus he is seldom or never disappointed. Life does not continually jar him.

This, believes Mr. Boyd, is an enviable state. The cynic, as he sees him, is not a bitter discouraged person; he is one whose enjoyment of life is all the greater because he is too wise to look for more than he will get.

Probably this is all very true. Yet the world cannot do with too many cynics. Especially it cannot do with them in the high places. Its great need is for people who dare to expect the best, not the worst; people who can retain a deep faith in human nature in spite of Chicago gang wars, Philadelphia primaries, New York night clubs and Hollywood publicity seekers.

For faith, after all, can move mountains. It is a lie that we cannot lift ourselves by our own bootstraps. We have been doing it for many centuries, and we must continue to do it. Cynicism is a fine armor for the man who does not dare face the unpleasant shocks of life, but it is next to useless for the big jobs of the world. Idealism, preferably of the impractical, visionary kind, is what is needed.

If you do not expect too much of human nature you will never ask too much of it. And it is the great askers—the men and women who demand that their fellows transcend their limitations of selfishness, blindness and timidity—that push the world forward.

Cynicism would have helped Washington endure his squabbles with the Continental Congress, the grasping Tory traders and the self-seeking army officers with much more comfort. It would have made Valley Forge more bearable. But it would not have won the Revolution. That took visionary idealism that could persist in spite of plain common sense.

Likewise a cynical Lincoln would have been happier than the gaunt idealist who occupied the White House from 1861 to 1865; happier, and less successful. For the world somehow does not respond to cynicism. It demands ideals, even if it flouts them. Seeing as through a glass, darkly, it nevertheless can recognize that which is higher than itself; and, in the fullness of time, it will follow it.

This is especially true in a democracy, like ours. To the cynic the problems of democracy are insoluble. They call for an impossible improvement in human nature. Yet they will be solved in time; solved because they will be, from time to time, Lincolns, Roosevelts and Wilsons who dare appeal to their fellows to do the impossible.

THE POWER TRUST PROBE

A big middle western newspaper runs a story by its Washington correspondent saying that the federal trade commission's investigation of the power trust "has failed of its purpose," and protesting that public money is being spent on its continuation.

Maybe the investigation has failed, for all we know. It does seem, though, as if it was worth all it cost to find out how the utility barons are spreading propaganda throughout the nation. A few of those revelations about doctored text books were, to our notion, highly important.

It is hard to see just wherein the investigation has been a flop. To us it seems as if the country has got its money's worth out of it.

A CAPTAIN'S SUICIDE

Dispatches from Chile regarding the loss of the Chilean transport Angamos, which hit a rock and sank with 300 on board, say that when the ship's captain, Israel Suarez, found himself un-

The RAMBLER

A POEM FOR TODAY
By NORMAN W. RALSTON

CRAVING

I crave the lesser things of life,
Perhaps the song of some young bird
To carry me through all this strife—
Give me a kindly word.

A smile to brighten up my day,
The handclasp of a friend
And his advice to light my way
I crave until the end.

Some seek the pleasures gold will bring,
But wealth is not in money,
Of simple joys here would I sing,
To sip the "gold" of honey.

Who cares for wealth and wealth alone
Will miss the greatest joy of living
For his weak life has smaller grown
If he has stored and failed in giving.

Just take the lesser things and smile,
Then dig away for greater treasure,
You'll find that living is worthwhile
In simply toiling for your measure.

RADIO

SATURDAY

WEAF NETWORK—830 EDST—730 EST—630 CST—Lewisohn Stadium Concert, Bernardino Molinari Conducting.

WJZ NETWORK—830 EDST—730 EST—630 CST—Goldman Band Concert.

WOR NEWARK (422)—9 EDST—8 EST—7 CST—WOR's Playhouse.

WSB ATLANTA (476) 1245 A M CST—Red Head Club.

WDAF KANSAS CITY (370)—145 A M EDST—1245 EST—1145 CST—Nighthawks.

SUNDAY

WEAF HOOR-UP—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Atwater Kent Hour.

WEAF HOOR-UP—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—Capitol Theatre Program.

WJZ NETWORK—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Goldman Band.

WJZ NETWORK—1015 EDST—915 EST—815 CST—National Symphony Orchestra.

WPG ATLANTIC CITY—(273)—915 EDST—815 EST—715 CST—Opera Concert.

MONDAY

WJZ NETWORK—930 EDST—830 EST—730 CST—"Real Folks."

WOR NETWORK—9 EDST—8 EST—7 CST—United Opera Company.

WEAF NETWORK—930 EDST—830 EST—730 CST—General Motors Hour.

WJZ NETWORK—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—Roxy's Gang.

WGY SCHENECTADY (380)—730 EDST—630 EST—530 CST—General Electric Hour.

SOUTHERN OHIO IS

AFTER COOLER WAVE

CLEVELAND, Aug. 4.—Thunderdrowers were expected to bring relief today from the heat wave which claimed three lives in Cleveland Friday and set a new high mark of the season at 91 degrees.

Victims of the heat were: Gordon F. Whitney, 60; Lake-wood.

George Merkle, 45.
Miss Lucille Carr, 25.

Six deaths from the heat were reported throughout the state.

WOMAN 95, DIES

GALLIPOLIS, O., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Mary Hanson, 95, oldest citizen of this city, died here suddenly today. She was the mother of Dr. James T. Hanson, one of the city's oldest physicians.

THE GREAT WAR TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

August 4, 1918.

Allies cross Vesle. Menace German flanks.

British nearing Amiens. Pershing says war is near end.

Americans seized 8,400 prisoners and 133 guns in last series of attacks.

able to prevent the catastrophe he committed suicide on the steamer's bridge.

One can easily understand that a captain might be unnerved at the prospect of a shipwreck that would cost many lives. Yet Capt. Suarez hardly acted in the best traditions of the sea.

Maritime records are full of the tales of captains who went down with their ships. The stern rules of the sea require a captain to do all he can for the safety of ship, passengers and crew, thinking of himself last of all. The underwater ghosts of the old-time shipwreckers, rolling in Davy Jones' locker, will hardly award a place of honor to this Chilean ship master who lost his head.

ANOTHER PARTY HEARD FROM

© 1928, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.
Great Britain rights reserved.

Love's Ecstasy
by May Christie

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

ALEDA RAY, pretty blue-eyed country girl, working as a stenographer in New York, is in love with Gary Chester, young engineer. Alela is living at the home of Marise de Rense, proprietor of the Harvest Moon cabaret. Marise, elderly and hard-working, is infatuated with Clive Mortimer, ne'er-do-well Englishman. The latter, petting Goldie de Rense, young sister of Marise, to join him in a blackmailing scheme, planning to have her operate a flower shop which in reality would be a private "post office."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XX.

ALEDA—her heart singing with happiness—awoke to a new day in the little sunlit bedroom of Marise's house.

There, on the dressing-table, wrapped in tissue-paper, lay the handsome pair of gloves. On the previous night they had arrived mysteriously. The package had contained no card or message.

But that the gift had come from Gary Chester, the recipient was certain!

"You've been kissing some man, and this is the forfeit!" Goldie had crudely cried out.

Into Alela's mind had swept the recollection of that kiss, up-state! So Gary—despite the concussion following on the accident—had remembered?

This was his way of showing his remembrance—and appreciation! The fact that no card had been included with the gift displayed his delicacy!

"He's sensitive, like I am!" Before Alela's mind stretched glittering peaks of joy. Between herself and this attractive Gary was a "something," drawing them mutually to each other. It was not for nothing that quaint and thrilling meeting in the Adirondacks! And hadn't Kate now thrown them together a second time?

Last night he had asked her for her address, on parting with her. It must have been his plan then to buy the gloves! He wanted her to think about that kiss... given far away... given by a sudden impulse that she thought was pity, but now knew was something deeper... how she had been drawn irresistibly to that pale, unconscious face!

"He's the handsomest man I've ever seen!" He'd far and away the most attractive! She lay back on the pillows for a luxurious moment, flinging both arms above her head, and stretching blissfully.

Alela had known few men in her young life. Up in the mountains—even with her daily trips in the car to the nearest town for her shorthand lessons—there had been few social contacts, and existence had run quietly, with no great thrills, and at the same time no great sorrows, or indeed any excessive emotions, to make high lights on her life.

Then, as though dropped from the blue skies above her lake, had come the stranger! She'd held his unconscious body—slim and straight, like an Apollo—in her arms, had pressed her lips in overwhelming pity on his blood-stained forehead!

In the dim regions where his mind was wandering, he had registered that kiss!

A thrill shot through her heart at memory of it.

"He was 'sent' to me. There was a purpose in our meeting. Right from the first moment I felt—oh! as I've never felt before!"

Today, on this sunny, early Summer morning when the world was fresh and sparkling, would she see him again? Would he come into William B. Lingard's office on some pretext, just to have one look at her? Or would he telephone?

Alela rose, went to the window, flung it up higher, and put her curly head out for a breath of air.

Life was intoxicating. Full of heavenly possibilities. No longer was New York lonely. Never again would she be foolishly afraid.

She lingered, listening to the gay noises of the city. Yes, they were gay today—not strident! Wasn't even the roar of the Elevated like a friendly voice?

Her thoughts were flushed with happiness. They sprang from sunlit peak to peak of joy. They leapt down long vistas of meetings with Gary Chester—listened to imagined whispers that were as the music of the spheres to her.

This loving! Here in the shabby little bedroom of Marise's house in the West Forties, love beat about like Alela like the spiced odor of a thousand poppies, drugging the soul, and setting her heart afire.

"But this will never do!" She flung delicious thoughts away from her, glanced at her watch that lay beside the gloves upon her bureau, gave a startled: "Oh-oh! I'll have to rush!" and with a buoyant swiftness bathed and dressed.

She donned a crisp little waist with a frilly collar. Her dark blue suit was neatly pressed. Down on her curly head she drew the small blue hat that had seemed so plain and prim, but today was adjusted to a coquettish angle. She fluffed her hair above each ear, bringing it forward so that it made her eyes more shadowy.

She dabbed a fluff of powder on her pretty, rounded cheeks, her nose and chin. (Alela's apple blossom skin required no touch of color.)

Then, catching up the gauntlet glove—she'd wear them, even though they were too good for daily use, because she was certain she would see the donor!—Alela ran downstairs for breakfast to the dining-room.

The table wasn't set. Marise called from the kitchen:

"That good-for-nothing maid hasn't shown up yet! Come on in here! I'm making the coffee!"

Meals—especially in the morning—were apt to be sketchy and Marise. Even in the artificial light of the kitchen table, a dainty, sprightly figure, eating a sugared bun, and sipping the hot liquid. She listened to Marise's complaints with outward sympathy, but the doleful recital could find no reflection on her own happy face.

"From whom? What's that? What did you say?" Marise rapped out the words like pistol shots. Her eyes were staring. Her hand that held the cup shook violently, so that some of the coffee spilled upon the table. Alela saw that her unrouged lips had suddenly gone white. "Did—did you say—Lingard... Wall Street... a word."

"Why, yes! I thought I'd told you? My boss is William B. Lingard... Wall Street... a financier. Do you know him?"

Alela was startled at Marise's fixed stare, the sudden tension of her body.

"Know him? Good God! Is he—is he about 48 years of age? Handsome... with a Roman nose... and a jutting chin... a sort of eagle face?"

"Fits him exactly!" exclaimed Alela. "What—what is it, Marise?" She was concerned at the other's sudden pallor and queer air.

"You've met him, you say?" Marise's cup slipped from her nervous fingers with a clatter. Her lips opened and shut helplessly. She gave a tiny moan as her head fell sideways and she slipped to the floor.

(Continued Tomorrow.)

CO-OP MARKET IS JUST NEW RECTOR SAYS

But a Business Institution, Circleville Man Says Over Radio.

"Cooperative marketing of live stock is a comparatively modern movement in American agriculture. It is a business institution, working under a plan which has been gradually accepted as practical and best fitted to meet the varied and multiple problems of the live stock industry. It can only succeed with close relationship between management and membership," said E. C. Rector, Circleville, in a radio talk broadcast from WAIU, Columbus, sponsored by the Ohio Live Stock Cooperative Association Friday...

"Progress has been remarkable during the past 10 years. Co-operative associations are now numbered by the thousands, membership by the hundreds of thousands and volume of business by the millions."

"Experience has given us better management and a sounder financial basis of operation. Unity in marketing was the first goal of cooperation. Unity in production was later presented as a problem of equal importance. The farmer and feeder having successfully established their own marketing system did not hesitate when economic conditions produced the new problems of production in the live stock industry."

"The National Producers Feeder Pool was organized to meet this new condition. The problem was national in its scope and a national organization was needed. The National Feeder Pool is just as truly cooperative and representative as a local or county live stock association. It is farmer-owned and farmer-controlled by the individual members through direct representatives selected by themselves."

"The function of the Pool is mainly that of direct contact between the ranchman and corn belt feeder, bringing these two great interests closer together under a plan satisfactory and profitable to both. The ranchmen are eager and willing to cooperate and dispose of their entire offerings for distribution through one organization. Organizations of ranchmen in different range territory are willing to work as cooperative organizations in promoting the Feeder Pool. They are not only willing to cooperate in selling collectively but will help finance the operation by helping share the cost of distribution. The Pool plan of buying collectively very materially lowers the cost per head of buying and distributing. The help of the ranchman in meeting the cost still further reduces the cost of operation."

"Picture with me the farmer with a very limited acreage needing but a few head of feeders having offered to him through organization the opportunity of buying those few head direct from a ranchman with thousands of feeders for sale. The cooperative ranchman who has produced these feeders in the vast range territory gathers them in with a great round-up and delivers them under contract to an agreed loading point. Here they are graded and sorted by a representative of the Feeder Pool who pays the ranchman for the cattle and then has them loaded as a solid train of feeders and start d for the corn belt traveling eastward as a live stock special making the time equal to that of a transcontinental flyer. The National Pool immediately draws draft for the stock on the Producer Association or the cooperative company through which the order originated."

"When the train reaches some point in the corn belt it is broken up and distributed to the various unloading points. Notification is then sent the county association through which the orders were placed of the probable time of arrival and draft drawn on the county association for the amount due for the feeders. When the exact time of arrival is known the manager of the association notifies the purchasers by telephone. The farmers, who combined their orders, send or drive to the unloading station, receive the desired number, pay for them, and in a few hours have them in their own feed lots. Only a few days from among thousands on one range to a car load or even less in many feedlots."

"The individual feeders of a few head have received identically the same service, in grade and quality combined bargaining ability, cost, handling charge, and most efficient transportation as the man who ordered and received a train load from the same round-up."

"Through the Producers Cattle Pool In the Hands of a Friend from Beginning to End."

U. S. FENCERS LOSE

Amsterdam, Aug. 4.—The United States Fencing team was eliminated in the semi-finals of the Epee today, losing to both France and Belgium.

MRS. JENNIE POWELL HAS OLD PAPERS

Mrs. Jennie Powell, formerly of Circleville, recently found some old newspapers that had belonged to her grandfather, T. F. Kraft, who died in 1874. These papers are dated away back before most people living now, can remember.

Among them are Circleville papers of March 12, 1867, and Nov. 22, 1869, with every letter set by hand. One of these papers carries a speech of Hon. S. S. Cox, on the "dangers of the negroes ruling the South, following the Civil War." From the text, this appeared to be a weighty question at that time.

Many of the advertisements of these papers contain such names as Mrs. E. Bayer, Milliner; Wolfley and Shulze; Marfield's bank; Old's Bookstore; Jacob Long, an undertaker and carriage maker. Another paragraph of interest was the description of the marriage of Miss Belle Florence, daughter of Elias Florence, to Rev. E. Owen Simpson. Miss Lizzie Crouse was the maid of honor. That was more than 51 years ago. The wedding must have been the very last word in marriages, according to those times.

The other old newspapers are especially valuable. They are editions of the Washington Daily Globe, the official paper of congress following the Civil war, and they contain some of the historic speeches made in congress during that period. One discussion, included the facts that the rebel states had never dreamed of being admitted to the Union as equals, but expected to be treated as conquered provinces.

The Feb. 12, 1864, edition, has some dispatches from General Grant, dated 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. He said "we have now ended the 6th day of heavy fighting. The result is very much in our favor." Gun boats were being blown up in the Appomattox by rebels. There were on the front page the lists of wounded soldiers to be found in the various hospitals, having arrived on the Potomac steamers.

These newspapers are among the few that have been saved from that strenuous period after the Civil war, and are to be treasured because of their value now, and because of their greater worth as the decades pass by.

SALESMAN HURT

NEWARK, O., Aug. 4.—San Arnold, salesman, Zanesville, is in Sanitarium hospital with his left leg amputated at the knee as a result of injuries received when he was struck by a hit-skip motorist three miles south of here last night. Arnold got out of his car to look for his purse when he was hit.

Quits Calles Cabinet

Openly accused with other leaders of the Mexican Labor party of being one of the "intellectual authors" of General Alvaro Obregon's assassination, Luis N. Morones, ministry of industry, has tendered his resignation to President Calles. He denied sympathy with Obregon opposition.

WHOOPIING IT UP.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 4.—Health Commissioner Paul F. Orr issued a statement Saturday warning parents that whooping cough cases in Toledo have increased from 32 to 46 during the last week. He appealed for co-operation with his department to check spread of the disease.

THIS AND THAT

(Continued from page one.)

In Mrs. Letherman's actions in the matter. A mother's love for her child should be greater in life than in death. There is always chance in the world. No one ever seems so unfortunate but what we look about us we can see others suffering a worse plight. Courage to try is a great quality.

LODGES KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Philos Lodge No. 64
Regular meeting, every Monday, at 8:00 p. m.

Visiting brothers always welcome.
S. L. WARNER
K. of R. G.

CURTIS BURKHEAD, C. C.

DIET AND EXERCISE
BEST WAY TO REDUCE

This Business of Using Powerful Drugs Is Not Merely Ineffective But May Impair the Health.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

ISN'T it a strange thing what tortures human beings will submit to in order to get thin and willow, or to add flesh so as to be plump? More medicines have been sold for their alleged value in changing the figure than for all the real ailments of the human family.

Not long ago I was a guest at a dinner party. My charming hostess had a great, crescent-shaped black and blue mark on her upper arm. Fearing that I might be asking an embarrassing question I did not inquire what had happened, but I saw my glance and the interrogation in my eyes.

Then she told me the story of going to a "doctor" who proposed to "reduce" her by hypodermic administration of some "serum." When the arm turned black my hostess said she took sensible advice and decided to reduce by the natural methods—by eating less and exercising more.

I am more and more concerned over the way women dose themselves with powerful drugs which have a reputed value in taking off flesh, which have a reputed value in taking off flesh. Dear friends, it isn't safe to do this. You can not afford to trifle with your good health by any such method.

Well chosen, systematically employed, physical exercises are of great value. But they are of no use unless every single day you get a noticeable by applying equal parts of lemon juice and peroxide. Follow this by gently massaging with good cold cream, as it likely will prove drying to the skin.

P. H. Q.—What causes large rings under the eyes and how can condition be corrected?

A.—May be due to intestinal disturbances, worms or less of sleep. Examination will determine necessary treatment. Keeping a system clear may bring about improvement. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Don't take drugs to get thin, but use common sense and the natural methods.

Water helps to dissolve the wastes and to put into solution materials which should be taken from the body. Some of the wastes retained may retard the assimilative processes and this may assist the addition of fat.

Don't take drugs to get thin, but use common sense and the natural methods.

Water helps to dissolve the wastes and to put into solution materials which should be taken from the body. Some of the wastes retained may retard the assimilative processes and this may assist the addition of fat.

Don't take drugs to get thin, but use common sense and the natural methods.

Water helps to dissolve the wastes and to put into solution materials which should be taken from the body. Some of the wastes retained may retard the assimilative processes and this may assist the addition of fat.

Don't take drugs to get thin, but use common sense and the natural methods.

Court News

RICHARDSON WILL

The will of George S. Richardson has been probated.

The testator bequeaths to his cousin, Mary Jane Fields his real estate, 20 acres in Washington-twp. during her natural life and at her death to her nephew, Charles B. Hall.

His niece, Mary Jane Fields, was named and appointed executor.

JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION

C. A. Jones, receiver of The First National Bank of Mt. Sterling, has secured judgment against Mart Goings for $1,505.84 at 7 per cent from March 10, 1928.

SAYS COOPER WILL

LEAD G. O. P. FORCES

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati, is certain of the Republican nomination for governor, Harry D. Silver, campaign manager for Cooper, claimed in a statement today.

"Careful analysis of reports coming into Cooper headquarters indicates that today Cooper would carry more than fifty counties for governor," Silver said.

"Before primary date, additional counties now considered

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

1 CENT A WORD EACH INSERTION

No ads published for less than 25 cents.

"Situations Wanted" ads will be inserted free.

TERMS
When mailing classified advertisements, send cash with order—one cent a word for each insertion.

TELEPHONE ADS are solicited and will be charged. We expect the payment of small bills promptly to save the expense of sending out statements.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT — FARM. CALL 1368. 201-5T.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED rooms for light housekeeping. Call 1265. 198-TT.

FOR RENT — FLAT, 6 ROOMS and bath. Lyman Bell. Phone 663. 200-TT.

FOR RENT — 150 ACRE FARM one mile south of Atlanta, in Perry-twp. Inquire Henry L. Mader, 141 Pinkney-st. Phone 688. 203-TT.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE — 300 BU. GOOD solid corn. Call 657 evenings. 204-2T.

FOR SALE — FIVE ROOM house. Inquire 434 S. Scioto-st. Phone 1049. 205-3T.

LOST

LOST — BLACK AND GRAY Police dog. Finder call 1196 or return to 419 E. Main-st. 204-2T.

LOST — SPARE TIRE LOCK AT corner of Watt and Court-sts. Finder return to The Herald office. 205-3T.

WANTED

WANTED — LAUNDRY WORK of all kinds; washing at reasonable price. We call for and deliver. Mrs. Albert Frazier, rear 512 E. Main-st. Phone 400.

MALE HELP WANTED — WANTED man 25 to 50. Big pay — year around work, no lay-offs, no boss. Must be a worker, have car, and call on farmers in Pickaway-co. References needed. Pay every day. Write at once. FURST & THOMAS. Desk G5, Freeport, Ill. 205-1T.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 — The most extensive radio hook up ever organized to broadcast a single event will be used when Herbert Hoover accepts the Republican presidential nomination at Stanford university on Aug. 11. Republican campaign headquarters announced today.

Babies Love It

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe infants' and children's Laxative.

Mrs. Winslow's Syrup

FLIT DESTROYS Moths, Roaches, Bedbugs, Flies, Other Household Insects

Listen In! Listen In!
Sunday, Aug. 5
at 9:30 to 11 a.m.

HEAR J. F. Rutherford, president of The International Bible Students' Assn., speaking from Detroit, his message will be broadcast over more than one hundred stations, including WCAH, Columbus. No one should deny themselves the opportunity of hearing this inspiring message of hope and consolation.

Matt. 24:14

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

PROBE CRASH IN WHICH MUSICAL STAR IS INJURED

While Fred Stone Lies In Hospital Recovering From His Injuries.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 4 — While Fred Stone, his dancing legs broken and his head swathed in bandages, lay in a hospital here today recovering from injuries received when his airplane crashed yesterday, state aviation officials were investigating apparent in-a-fraction-of-a-second air regulations.

Although the noted comedian holds a federal student pilot's license, it was said he had failed to obtain a Connecticut student's license, before he made the hop that may end his dancing career. Connecticut laws likewise provide a plane must be reported within 48 hours after it enters the state. Stone's Travelair biplane was reported to have been brought here nearly a week ago and was not reported.

State Aviation Commissioner Clarence M. Knox was to confer with Lieutenant John Campion, Stone's flight instructor, who was at the Croton airport and witnessed the crash.

Mrs. Stone has moved to the hospital to be near her husband. The actor's three children, Dorothy, Paula and Cyril, went to the hospital from Stone's East Lyme ranch today. Rex Beach, author and life-long friend, was another visitor.

Doctors have ordered only relatives and close friends be admitted to the patient's ward. It is with difficulty that Stone speaks. A physician asked him how he felt.

"Rotten," Stone muttered. Here is a list of his troubles: Double fracture of the left leg, fractured right thigh, fractured jaw, fractured left wrist, dislocated right shoulder, lacerations and abrasions of the head, face and hands.

Hospital attaches reported this morning that Stone had spent a "fairly comfortable" night and that his condition was regarded as more favorable.

STRIKERS' PARADE CALLED OFF TODAY

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 4 — The proposed parade of the so-called radical group of New Bedford textile strikers, scheduled for this afternoon, was called off today.

STANDINGS

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Indianapolis	66	47	.584
Kansas City	62	50	.554
Minneapolis	62	52	.544
St. Paul	62	54	.534
Milwaukee	57	54	.513
Toledo	55	58	.487
Louisville	44	67	.396
Columbus	43	69	.384

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	65	36	.644
New York	56	40	.583
Chicago	60	44	.577
Cincinnati	59	44	.573
Brooklyn	51	50	.510
Pittsburgh	50	47	.515
Boston	28	64	.304
Philadelphia	24	68	.261

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	71	33	.683
Philadelphia	66	37	.641
St. Louis	54	53	.505
Chicago	48	57	.457
Cleveland	48	57	.457
Washington	47	59	.443
Detroit	44	58	.431
Boston	39	63	.382

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

American Association
Milwaukee, 6; Columbus, 3.
Milwaukee, 6; Columbus, 4.
Kansas City, 6; Toledo, 1.
Indianapolis, 5; St. Paul, 2.
Indianapolis, 3; St. Paul, 2.
Minneapolis-Louisville — rain.

National League
St. Louis, 5; Boston, 1.
New York, 7; Cincinnati, 5.
Chicago, 8; Brooklyn, 5.
Pittsburgh, 14; Philadelphia, 6.

American League
Washington, 9; Detroit, 3.
Cleveland, 9; Philadelphia, 5.
Boston, 3; Chicago, 1.
St. Louis, 8; New York, 0.

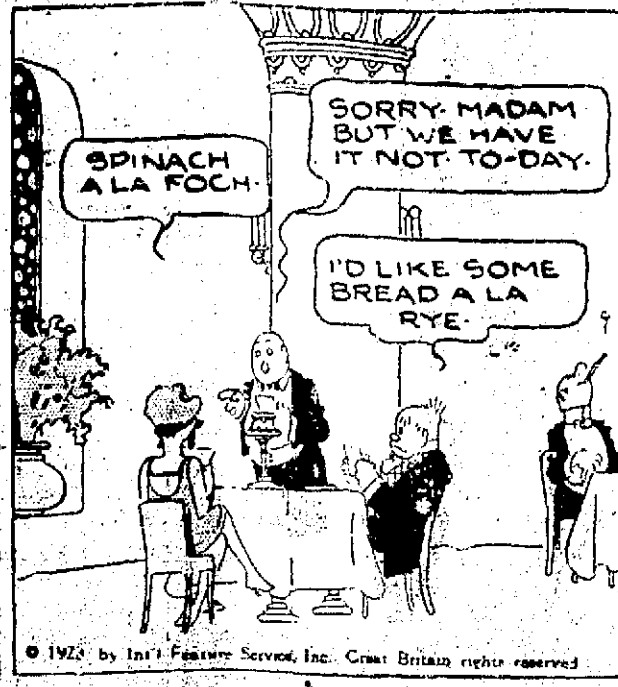

GAMES TODAY

American Association
Milwaukee at Columbus.
Kansas City at Toledo.
St. Paul at Indianapolis.
Minneapolis at Louisville.

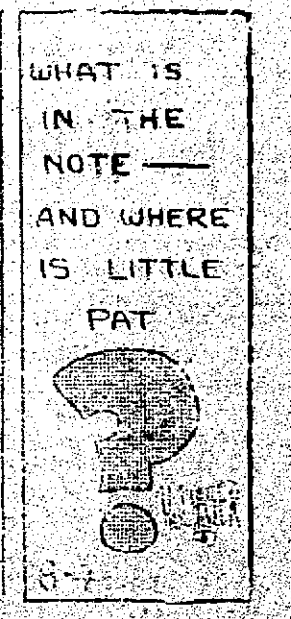

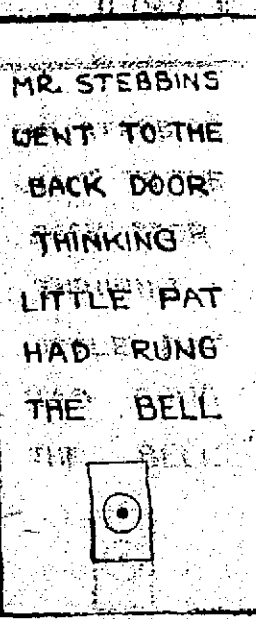

National League
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.

American League
Washington at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
New York at Chicago.
Boston at St. Louis.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

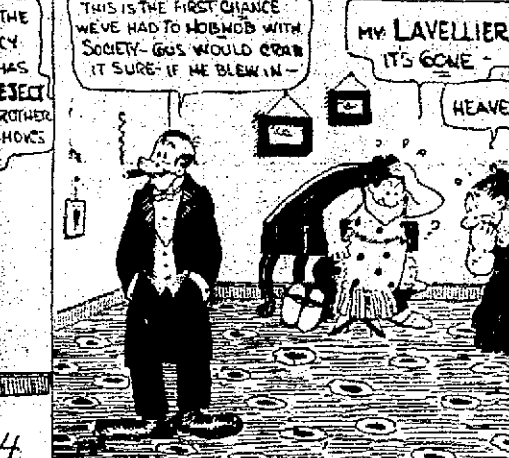

JUST KIDS — THE MYSTERIOUS NOTE.

HITT and RUNN

BY HITT

DO YOU KNOW WHY?

IT'S A HARD JOB TO SEE OUR CITIES NOW — ADAYS? —

BY FISHER

BUT NEWS OF

(Continued from page one.)
But if the Poles landed at mid-sea they would have to rely on coming down near a vessel just as did George Haldeman and Ruth Elder.

LONDON, Aug. 4 — The British steamer Amakura radioed today that at midnight EST an airplane circled her in mid-Atlantic.

It was assumed that the plane was that of the Polish aviators Majors Louis Idzikowski and Kasimir Kubala, enroute from Le Bourget airdrome, Paris, to New York.

That the plane was sighted approaching from the westward was thought to be because the plane probably had been westward of the ship, and had deviated its course to circle the ship, then resume its course toward Cape Race, Newfoundland.

LONDON, Aug. 4 — The British steamer Port Hunter reported this morning that she had intercepted a wireless dispatch from the steamer Arto Telling of a biplane being sighted at sea.

The message from the Arto (Co) said the biplane passed over at latitude 44 degrees and 22 minutes north and longitude 24 degrees eight minutes west. It was flying in a westerly direction.

The machine disappeared over the water, the intercepted message said.

All seemed well with the craft and it apparently was functioning perfectly.

It was presumed that the plane was that of the Polish flyers Majors Idzikowski and Kubala who are attempting a trans-Atlantic flight from Paris to New York.

The position mentioned in the dispatch would have placed the biplane almost due north of the Azores Islands on the regular route to the northern coast of North America.

CRIMINAL AT LARGE
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 — Newspapers warned citizens today that Robert Evans, 28, criminally insane patient, was at large after a thrilling escape from St. Elizabeth's hospital.

MARKETS

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.
Quotations by the Circleville Produce Company.

Butter fat 44; hens 18; eggs 27.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET
New wheat, $1.30.
Corn, $1.02; oats, 30c.
Quotations by the Pickaway Grain Company.

PRODUCE

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4 — Butter, extras in tub lots 47-49; extra firsts, 43 3-4-45 3-4; seconds 39 3-4-41 3-4.

Eggs, extra 37; extra firsts 34-1-2; firsts 31; ordinaries, 27 1-2. Poultry, heavy broilers 35-37; Leghorns 24-26; heavy fowls 26-27; medium stock 25-26; Leghorns 18-20; ducks 20-22; geese 15-17; old cocks 16-17.

Potatoes, U. S. No. 1, cloth top stave barrels, Virginia, 275

OPENING GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 4 — Wheat Sept. 116 7-8 117 off 1 to 718; Dec. 122 1-2-122 3-4 off 1 to 3-4. Corn Sept. 96 3-8 off 1 1-8; Dec. 76 1-8 off 3-4; March 77 1-2-77 3-4 off 3-4 to 1-2.

Oats, Sept. 38 3-4, unchanged; Dec. 42 unchanged; March 43 3-4 off 1-8.

SOUTHERN

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 4 — With the lowest temperature Saturday morning at 72 degrees and the mercury steadily mounting, Cincinnati and their neighbors looked toward the early forecast of thunder storms and a cool Sunday for relief.

The storm that visited Cincinnati suburbs late Friday failed to help the sweltering city, and the day's highest temperature stood at 89 degrees.

VARE IS RALLYING

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 4 — After a relapse that at the time was regarded as the beginning of the end, Senator-elect William S. Vare, Philadelphia Republican leader, rallied and today a bulletin said he was in the best condition since he was stricken last Wednesday night.

KINGSTON

Salem M. E. church at Meade will observe a home-coming day on Sunday, Aug. 26th. All former members are urged to be present. A splendid program is being prepared and a good time is expected.

Russell Wolfe of Cincinnati, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe at Thatcher.

George Vawters of Redwing, S. Dakota, arrived Monday for a short vacation with his sisters, Misses Minnie and Jennie Vawters.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of Bainbridge, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hatfield on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Gearhart, Mrs. Elizabeth Eckstine and family spent Sunday at Lancaster camp grounds and Miss Dorothy accompanied them home after a week spent at camp.

Mrs. N. J. Dunlap visited her daughter, Mrs. H. O. Pike in Circleville this week.

Earl McCorkle of Three Locks, arrived Tuesday to spend a week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David McCorkle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hatcher and Miss Mary Hatcher spent the week-end in Columbus with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Harpster with their son Harold and wife, and Miss Harpster with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Anderson and family. Miss Flossie Harpster spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gill at.

WE PAY $5.00 PER HEAD FOR HORSES and COWS
Circleville Fertilizer
Reverse the Call. Phone 1363

CIRCLE REALTY CO.
— Licensed Brokers —
W. C. MOHRIS
Secretary and Treasurer
Room 3 and 4
Masonic Temple
Phone 234.
11 25 TT.

THE HERALD
TELEPHONE NUMBERS
ARE 782 and 581.

Stoutsville.

Mrs. Pearl Patrick and Mrs. Gus Reichelderfer were visitors to Circleville, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Dreisbach and Mrs. W. R. Sunderland were visitors to Columbus Wednesday.

Miss Jean Maxwell of Columbus, arrived Monday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Orr and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Roby and family and Mrs. Charles Roby visited Mrs. Roby's sisters, Mesdames Rancie Murlott and Minor Drum at Stoutsville, Sunday.

Miss Geneva Dumm of Columbus, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dumm near Meade.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Merriman delightfully entertained Sunday with a 12 o'clock dinner; the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Handerson Camp; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mc-

Afee and family of Jackson, and

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Scott and sons Earl, Carol and Merle.

Denton McAfee of Jackson, is the guest this week of his aunt, Mrs. O. P. Merriman and husband.

Church notices — Kingston M. E. church, Rev. Floyd S. Webb, minister. Sunday, 9:30 a. m., church school; 10:45 a. m., worship with sermon, "The Reach of the Religious Mind." No evening service. Everyone cordially invited.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

BY EDSON R. WAITE
Shawnee, Oklahoma

M. F. HANSON, PUBLISHER OF THE DULUTH (MINN.) HERALD, SAYS:

"Did you ever stop to think, young man, of the meaning of the news you read in your newspaper day after day?"

"Did you ever stop to think of what it means in teaching the right way of life for individual, community and nation? Did you ever take home to yourself the warnings it conveys of what awaits the nation, community or individual that breaks the rules of honor and fair play that were laid down before the worlds were made?"

"The wise young man and young woman, too, will read the news thoughtfully, not idly. He will form his own opinions of the meaning of what he reads, and he will use his reasoned deductions to fit him better to fill the place he should fill in the life of the community, the nation and the world."

"The real task of the meaning of this news to the progress of mankind, to the fact that this generation is preparing for the generations that follow; he will think, in a word, of the meaning of this news to his children. Is what is going on in the world making for them a better world, or a worse one? A world in which they shall have larger opportunities, or lesser ones? A world more menaced by the destructive operations of war and strife and hate and bigotry, or a world freed, to a larger extent than it is now, of these ugly children of fear and ignorance?"

"READ, YOUNG MAN; BUT AS YOU READ, THINK."

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

1 CENT A WORD EACH INSERTION

No ads published for less than 25 cents.

"Situations Wanted" ads will be inserted free.

TERMS

When mailing classified advertisements, send cash with order—one cent a word for each insertion.

TELEPHONE ADS are solicited and will be charged. We expect the payment of small bills promptly to save the expense of sending out statements.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT — FARM. CALL 1368.

FOR RENT — FURNISHED rooms for light housekeeping. Call 1265.

FOR RENT: — FLAT, 6 ROOMS and bath. Lyman Bell. Phone 663.

FOR RENT: — 150 ACRE FARM one mile south of Atlanta, in Perry-twp. Inquire Henry L. Mader, 141 Pinkney-st. Phone 688.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: — 300 BU. GOOD solid corn. Call 657 evenings.

FOR SALE: — FIVE ROOM house. Inquire 434 S. Scioto-st. Phone 1049.

LOST

LOST—BLACK AND GRAY police dog. Finder call 1196 or return to 419 E. Main-st. 204-2t.

LOST—SPARE TIRE LOCK AT corner of Watt and Court-sts. Finder return to The Herald office. 205-3t.

WANTED

WANTED:—LAUNDRY WORK of all kinds; washing at reasonable price. We call for and deliver. Mrs. Albert Frazier; rear 512 E. Main-st. Phone 400.

MALE HELP WANTED—WANT- ed man 25 to 50. Big pay—year around work, no lay-offs, no boss-er. Must be a worker, have car, and call on farmers in Pickaway-co. References needed. Pay every day. Write at once, FURST & THOMAS, Desk G5, Freeport, Ill. 205-1tx.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4—The most extensive radio hook up ever organized to broadcast a single event will be used when Herbert Hoover accepts the Republican presidential nomination at Stanford university on Aug. 11. Republican campaign headquarters announced today.

Babies Love It

For all stomach and intestinal troubles and disturbances due to teething, there is nothing better than a safe Infants' and Children's Laxative.

Mrs. Winslow's SYRUP

FLIT DESTROYS Moths, Roaches, Bedbugs, Flies, Other Household Insects

Listen In! Listen In!
Sunday, Aug. 5
at 9:30 to 11 a.m.

HEAR J. F. Rutherford, president of "The International Bible Students' Assn.," speaking from Detroit, his message will be broadcast over more than one hundred stations, including WCAH, Columbus. No one should deny themselves the opportunity of hearing this inspiring message of hope and consolation.

Matt. 24:14

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

PROBE CRASH IN WHICH MUSICAL STAR IS INJURED

While Fred Stone Lies In Hospital Recovering From His Injuries.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 4—While Fred Stone, his dancing legs broken and his head swathed in bandages, lay in a hospital here today recovering from injuries received when his airplane crashed yesterday, state aviation officials were investigating apparent in-4 fractions of Connecticut's air regulations.

Although the note comedian holds a federal student pilot's license, it was said he had failed to obtain a Connecticut student's license, before he made the hop that may end his dancing career.

Connecticut laws likewise provide a plane must be reported within 48 hours after it enters the state. Stone's Travelair biplane was reported to have been brought here nearly a week ago and was not reported.

State Aviation Commissioner Clarence M. Knox was to confer with Lieutenant John Campion, Stone's flight instructor, who was at the Croton airport and witnessed the crash.

Mrs. Stone has moved to the hospital to be near her husband. The actor's three children, Dorothy, Paula and Cyril, went to the hospital from Stone's East Lyme ranch today. Rex Beach, author and life-long friend, was another visitor.

Doctors have ordered only relatives and close friends be admitted to the patient's ward. It is with difficulty that Stone speaks. A physician asked him how he felt.

"Rotten," Stone muttered. Here is a list of his troubles: Double fracture of the left leg, fractured right thigh, fractured jaw, fractured left wrist, dislocated right shoulder, lacerations and abrasions of the head, face and hands.

Hospital attaches reported this morning that Stone had spent a "fairly comfortable" night and that his condition was regarded as more favorable.

STRIKERS' PARADE CALLED OFF TODAY
NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 4.—The proposed parade of the so-called radical group of New Bedford textile strikers, scheduled for this afternoon, was called off today.

STANDINGS

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Indianapolis	66	47	.584
Kansas City	62	50	.554
Minneapolis	62	52	.544
St. Paul	62	54	.534
Milwaukee	57	54	.513
Toledo	55	58	.487
Louisville	44	67	.396
Columbus	43	69	.384

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	65	36	.644
New York	56	40	.583
Chicago	50	44	.527
Cincinnati	59	44	.573
Brooklyn	51	50	.510
Pittsburgh	50	47	.515
Boston	28	64	.304
Philadelphia	24	68	.261

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	71	33	.683
Philadelphia	66	37	.641
St. Louis	54	53	.505
Chicago	48	57	.457
Cleveland	48	57	.457
Washington	47	59	.443
Detroit	44	58	.431
Boston	39	63	.382

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

American Association
Milwaukee, 6; Columbus, 3.
Milwaukee, 6; Columbus, 4.
Kansas City, 6; Toledo, 1.
Indianapolis, 5; St. Paul, 2.
Indianapolis, 3; St. Paul, 2.
Minneapolis-Louisville—rain.

National League
St. Louis, 5; Boston, 1.
New York, 7; Cincinnati, 5.
Chicago, 8; Brooklyn, 5.
Pittsburgh, 14; Philadelphia, 6.

American League
Washington, 9; Detroit, 3.
Cleveland, 9; Philadelphia, 5.
Boston, 3; Chicago, 1.
St. Louis, 8; New York, 0.

GAMES TODAY

American Association
Milwaukee at Columbus.
Kansas City at Toledo.
St. Paul at Indianapolis.
Minneapolis at Louisville.

National League
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.

American League
Washington at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
New York at Chicago.
Boston at St. Louis.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

JUST KIDS—THE MYSTERIOUS NOTE.

HITT and RUNN BY HITT

DO YOU KNOW WHY— IT'S A HARD JOB TO SEE OUR CITIES NOW—ADAYS? BY FISHER

BUT NEWS OF

(Continued from page one.)
But if the Poles landed at mid-sea they would have to reply on coming down near a vessel just as did George Haldeman and Ruth Elder.

LONDON, Aug. 4—The British steamer Amakura radioed today that at midnight EST an airplane circled her in mid-Atlantic.

It was assumed that the plane was that of the Polish aviators Majors Louis Idzikowski and Kasimir Kubala, enroute from Le-Bourget airdrome, Paris, to New York.

That the plane was sighted approaching from the westward was thought to be because the plane probably had been westward of the ship, and had deviated its course to circle the ship, then resume its course toward Cape Race, Newfoundland.

LONDON, Aug. 4—The British steamer Port Hunter reported this morning that she had intercepted a wireless dispatch from the steamer Artec Telling of a biplane being sighted at sea.

The message from the Artec (Co) said the biplane passed over at latitude 44 degrees and 22 minutes north and longitude 24 degrees eight minutes west. It was flying in a westerly direction.

The machine disappeared over the water, the intercepted message said.

All seemed well with the craft and it apparently was functioning perfectly.

It was presumed that the plane was that of the Polish flyers Majors, Idzikowski and Kubala who are attempting a trans-Atlantic flight from Paris to New York.

The position mentioned in the dispatch would have placed the biplane almost due north of the Azores Islands on the regular route to the northern coast of North America.

CRIMINAL AT LARGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Newspapers warned citizens today that Robert Evans, 23, criminally insane patient, was at large after a thrilling escape from St. Elizabeth's hospital.

MARKETS

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET
Quotations by the Circleville Produce Company.
Butter fat 44; hens 18; eggs 27.

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET
New wheat, $1.30.
Corn, $1.02; oats, 30c.
Quotations by the Pickaway Grain Company.

PRODUCE

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4—Butter, extras in tub lots 47-49; extra firsts, 43 3-4-45 3-4; seconds 39 3-4-41 3-4.
Eggs, extra 37; extra firsts 34-1-2; firsts 31; ordinaries, 27 1-2.
Poultry, heavy broilers 35-37; Leghorns 24-26; heavy fowls 26-27; medium stock 25-26; Leghorns 18-20; ducks 20-22; geese 15-17; old cocks 16-17.
Potatoes, U. S. No. 1, cloth top stave barrels, Virginia, 275.

OPENING GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 4—Wheat Sept. 116 7-8 117 off 1 to 718; Dec. 122 1-2 122 3-4 off 1 to 3-4.
Corn Sept. 96 3-8 off 1 1-8; Dec. 76 1-8 off 3-4; March 77 1-2-77 3-4 off 3-4 to 1-2.
Oats, Sept. 38 3-4, unchanged; Dec. 42 unchanged; March 43 3-4 off 1-8.

SOUTHERN

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 4.—With the lowest temperature Saturday morning at 72 degrees and the mercury steadily mounting, Cincinnati and their neighbors looked toward the early forecast of thunder storms and a cool Sunday for relief.

The storm that visited Cincinnati suburbs late Friday failed to help the sweltering city, and the day's highest temperature stood at 89 degrees.

VARE IS RALLYING

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 4.—After a relapse that at the time was regarded as the beginning of the end, Senator-elect William S. Vare, Philadelphia Republican leader, rallied and today a bulletin said he was in the best condition since he was stricken last Wednesday night.

KINGSTON

Salem M. E. church at Meade will observe a home-coming day on Sunday, Aug. 26th. All former members are urged to be present. A splendid program is being prepared and a good time is expected.

Russell Wolfe of Cincinnati, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe at Thatcher.

George Vawters of Redwing, S. Dakota, arrived Monday for a short vacation with his sisters, Misses Minnie and Jennie Vawters.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Gearhart, Mrs. Elizabeth Eckstine and family spent Sunday at Lancaster camp grounds and Miss Dorothy accompanied them home after a week spent at camp.

Mrs. N. J. Dunlap visited her daughter, Mrs. H. O. Pile in Circleville this week.

Earl McCordle of Three Locks, arrived Tuesday to spend a week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David McCordle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hatcher and Miss Mary Harpster spent the week-end in Columbus with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Harpster with their son Harold and wife, Mrs. Lewis Anderson and family. Miss Flossie Harpster spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gill at

WE PAY $5.00 PER HEAD FOR HORSES AND COWS
Circleville Fertilizer
Reverse the Call. Phone 1361

CIRCLE REALTY CO.
— Licensed Brokers —
W. C. MORRIS,
Secretary and Treasurer
Room 3 and 4,
Masonic Temple,
Phone 234,
11 25 tr.

THE HERALD
TELEPHONE NUMBERS
ARE 782 and 581.

Stoutsville.
Mrs. Pearl Patrick and Mrs. Gus Reichelderfer were visitors to Circleville, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Dreisbach and Mrs. W. R. Sunderland were visitors to Columbus Wednesday.
Miss Jean Maxwell of Columbus, arrived Monday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Orr and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maxwell.
Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Roby and family and Mrs. Charles Roby visited Mrs. Roby's sisters, Mesdames Rancie Murlott and Minor Drum at Stoutsville, Sunday.
Miss Geneva Dumm of Columbus, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dumm near Meade.
Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Merriman delightfully entertained Sunday with a 12 o'clock dinner; the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hans Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mc-Afee and family of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Seniff and sons Earl, Carol and Merle.

Denton McAfee of Jackson, is the guest this week of his aunt, Mrs. O. P. Merriman and husband. Church notices—Kingston M. E. church, Rev. Floyd S. Webb, minister, Sunday, 9:30 a. m., church school; 10:45 a. m., worship with sermon, "The Reach of the Religious Mind." No evening service. Everyone cordially invited.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

BY
EDSON R. WAITE
Shawnee, Oklahoma

M. F. HANSON, PUBLISHER OF THE DULUTH-(MINN.) HERALD, SAYS:

"Did you ever stop to think, young man, of the meaning of the news you read in your newspaper day after day?"

"Did you ever stop to think of what it means in teaching the right way of life for individual, community and nation? Did you ever take home to yourself the warnings it conveys of what awaits the nation, community or individual that breaks the rules of honor and fair play that were laid down before the worlds were made?"

"The wise young man—and young woman, too—will read the news thoughtfully, not idly. He will form his own opinions of the meaning of what he reads, and he will use his reasoned deductions to fit him better to fill the place he should fill in the life of the community, the nation and the world. He will think of the meaning of this news to the progress of mankind, to the fate that this generation is preparing for the generations that follow; he will think, in a word, of the meaning of this news to his children. Is what is going on in the world making for them a better world, or a worse one? A world in which they shall have larger opportunities, or lesser ones? A world more menaced by the destructive operations of war and strife and hate and bigotry, or a world freed, to a larger extent than it is now, of these ugly children of fear and ignorance?"

"READ, YOUNG MAN; BUT AS YOU READ, THINK."

SOCIETY

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Black of E. Main-st. announce the marriage of their daughter, Thelma, to Mr. Carl Sorg, July 12th, 1928, at Newport, Ky. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorg of E. Franklin-st. and is associated with the Goellers' broom factory.

The bridal couple returned Thursday from a three weeks' wedding trip to Pittsburgh, Pa. They will live for a time at the home of the bride's parents at 457 E. Main-st.

BIRTHDAY PARTY OF FRANK DAVIS JR.

The sixth birthday anniversary of Frank Davis Jr., will long be remembered by a number of his little friends who enjoyed a real birthday party at his home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Games on the large lawn at the Sheriff Davis residence, occupied most of the time until the boys and girls were then invited to fish in the fish pond. This part of the afternoon was very popular, and strange and beautiful things were caught on the dangling hook.

In the dining room at each guest's place was a dainty pink basket filled with candy and the table was also decorated in a color scheme of pink and white.

These boys and girls were invited, Mary Virginia Crites, Alice Davis, Marjory Lutz, Mary Hays, Gloria Rothman, Mary Jane Bowers, Polly Anna Friedman, Jackie Funk, Floyd Jones, Billy Lutz, Dickie Beechey, Jack Davis, Buddy Brakner, Howard Orr, Hulse Hays Jr., Billy Bennett, Heffner, and David Yates. Mrs. Davis was assisted by her daughters, Eleanor and Matilda and Nancy Jane Merriman.

TO ENJOY SUNDAY AT CAMP GROUNDS

The residents of Circleville who are spending the summer at the Lancaster Camp Grounds, will enjoy the biggest day of the season Sunday, Aug. 5th, with Homer Rodeheaver as the head liner on the day's program. Other parties from Circleville will go to the camp grounds just for Sunday and will be guests of friends who have cottages there.

Sunday will be one of the banner days in the history of the Lancaster Campmeeting and Assembly when Homer Rodeheaver and company will appear for two concerts. The Nartzger company will appear Sunday morning for the last of a series of evangelistic sermons and music combined. These talented people come from Winona, Lake and are among the foremost evangelists of the day.

Mr. Rodeheaver will have as his accompanist Miss Armstrong and Mr. Jester, noted tenor singer for many radio concerts, with his brother, Y. P. Rodeheaver, will be

(Political Advertisement.)

Joseph W. Adkins

Seeking Nomination for JUDGE OF COURT OF COMMON PLEAS of Pickaway County.

Democratic Primary August 14, 1928.

Your Support Appreciated

the attraction for afternoon and evening.

Already hundreds of people are occupying cottages on the grounds and this evening will see many others that will be moving in, preparatory for the week of Chautauqua which will continue for the entire week.

This ground which has an historical connection with the churches for a half century has become the mecca for thousands of music lovers as well as Christian workers. This Sunday will attract hundreds of people from central Ohio and many from W. Va., and Kentucky.

Many Circleville people are occupying cottages on the grounds and undoubtedly hundreds of others will motor to this beautiful grove of gigantic oak, majestic elms and stately maples. No better place in Ohio can be found for a picnic party and at the same time meet and hear some of the best talent that America can produce.

Following the music of Sunday the Redpath Chautauqua will present five full days of the very best numbers of music and entertainment.

HAVE PICNIC FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. Hildeburn Jones, Mrs. Edna Newmyer, Mrs. Charles Gilmore, Mrs. Hulse Hays and Mrs. Tom Harmon and her two children of Pittsburgh, and Burne Jones, Mary Newmyer, Horace Gilmore and Mary and Hulse Hays Jr., enjoyed a picnic supper together Friday evening.

U. B. SOCIAL IN ASHVILLE

A number of Circleville people have planned to attend the United Brethren social in the parsonage yard in Ashville Saturday afternoon and evening of Aug. 4th. The committee will start serving at 5 p. m. And the social will last until late in the evening.

TO VISIT SON IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Emile S. Toensmeier of the manse, E. Mount-st., left Friday for a visit in New York City with her son, Mr. John A. Toensmeier and family. Later she will be joined by Mr. Toensmeier and son Carl, who will make the trip to New York by motor.

MARRIED SATURDAY AT PARSONAGE

Mrs. Maude Evelyn Pratt and Mr. Harrison Rakestraw, both of Columbus, were quietly married Saturday morning, Aug. 4th, at the Methodist parsonage on N. Pickaway-st. The Rev. Franklin McElfresh was the officiating minister.

BUFFET SUPPER FOR BRIDGE CLUB

A buffet supper was served Friday night by Mrs. Lloyd Jones when she entertained her bridge club and a table of extra friends at her home on W. Franklin-st. The dining room was tastefully decorated with dainty bouquets on the tables where the guests were asked to serve themselves. Mrs. D. Adrian Yates received an attractive prize as a reward for making the highest score at bridge.

MISS SENSENBRENNER TO WED MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sensenbrenner of E. Mount-st. announce the engagement of their daughter, Genevieve, to Mr. Wallace Emmons of Columbus. He is the son of State Commissioner and Mrs. Ralph Emmons of 3054 Midway-rd., Columbus.

The wedding which will be an event of Aug. 6th will take place at the home of the bride-elect's parents at 6:30 o'clock and the guests will be only members of the immediate families.

RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Charles Eitel, who was taken to Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, several days ago for an abdominal operation was returned to his home on N. Pickaway-st. Friday without having the operation performed. Pleurisy had developed and it was thought advisable to delay the operation until this trouble had disappeared.

Noted Beauty Kicks Over Career to Hunt a Husband

But Pretty Marion Wants Culture, Too, So She Sails for Europe

By SHIRLEY KIRKE
International Illustrated News Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—Marion Benda has been married. She knows what a wife wants—and it's something you can't get out of a career. So she has chucked a career just like she chucked her husband and hied herself off to Europe—to acquire a mate with continental culture.

What she thinks of marriage was brought up at first as a jest. Then she got serious, and wrote 14 pages of her opinion of American husbands. It was her departing gift to Yankee swains. Among other things she wrote:

"The culture of European men teaches them respect for women that is absent in the money-making American."

"American men have failed in marriage. His wife lives the same life he does—smokes, golfs, and sits on a throne of independence."

"He thinks she's a good scout, but rarely feels romantic about her."

"Nine times out of ten he is not serious about marriage. He meets a woman, desires her, marries her and then neglects her. The latter might be because the American is fundamentally honest—he can't even fool himself."

"When a European finds himself bored with his wife he doesn't get a divorce immediately. He and his wife continue the organization of the home, rearing children."

"The European woman through a superior knowledge has learned the

MISS MARION BENDA

fundamental law of womanhood—to be only a woman.

"When an American's wife seems despondent, he doesn't sympathize with her, humor her with kind words and caresses—he hands her a roll of banknotes."

"This is why divorce occurs. The woman feels there is someone who cares more about her, and goes out to find him."

The pretty show girl said she hadn't any particular person in mind for the role of husband. But she's going to look around a bit before her vacation ends.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. D. Adrian Yates of N. Scioto-st., will start Sunday morning on a motor trip to Canada.

Felix Caldwell spent Friday afternoon on the golf course at the Eks Country club in Columbus.

Mr. A. J. Dunn of Columbus is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Reid of W. Corwin-st.

Mrs. N. G. Hamilton of W. High st. is able to be out after a recent illness of three months.

Mrs. Ida Chaney of New York City and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Drake of Columbus were Thursday guests of Mrs. S. C. Gamble and Mrs. E. A. Means of S. Court-st. Mrs. Chaney is a sister of Colonel John C. Speaks and Ole Speaks, two prominent residents of Columbus.

Miss Valera McClelland of Ashville was a shopping visitor in Circleville Saturday morning.

H. W. Plum will spend next week with his family at their cottage at the Lancaster Camp Grounds.

Onella Marshall and Mrs. Frank Goddard of Wellston were visitors in Circleville Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson of E. Franklin-st., who has been dangerously ill with the flu, is greatly improved and able to be out.

Misses Clara Neuner and Evelyn Strawser, nieces of E. M. Stout of N. Court-st., have returned to his home after a six weeks' visit spent with friends at Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Leland Gott, who has been the guest of her father, Louis Schneider of N. Court-st., will leave for her home in Elyria Sunday, accompanied by her husband, who was a week-end visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDowell and children of W. Mount-st., have returned home from a visit of two weeks with Mrs. McDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Finch, at Carmi, Ill.

MAYTAG EMPLOYEES ENJOY BUFFET DINNER

The regular monthly meeting of the Maytag Sales Corporation, was held Friday night at 8 p. m., at the Hanley dining room in the New American hotel. It was a business and social meeting combined and there were dealers and salesmen present from all over the entire 280 division.

A fine dinner was served in buffet style, which was followed immediately by the business discussions. Excellent entertainment was furnished by "The Bough Brothers"—a trio from London, Ohio. All three members of this family orchestra are associates of the Maytag Corporation.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening were the bass violin selections, played by George Adam of London, O. Mr. Adam, who is 70 years old, received many enthusiastic encores from his audience. The entire evening was one of pleasure and was enjoyed by the following:

Bill Brokaw and Roy Few of Delaware, O.; Harry Boughn, Edgar Boughn, Alva Boughn, David Towland, John Ames, George Adam, Charles Cheeseman, L. W. Embree, all of London; Frank Powers, John Anderson and W. E. Wright.

Mr. Roy Green of Columbus, district manager was one of the guests and Ira Carpenter, local dealer acted as host.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Redman of Abernethy-ave., announce the birth of a son, Friday, Aug. 3.

Cider Mill

In operation Monday, Wednesday and Friday next week, and every day during the apple season, starting Monday, Aug. 13. Mill on H. M. Crites farm, Island Road. See me before you buy barrels.

AB. ROWE

3 Times Every Day

Your meals are better with

WALLACES TWIN-LOAF or CREAM CRUM BREAD

"The Taste Tells."

Meet Your Friends Here JITNEY DANCE

At the C. A. C. GYM Saturday Night

Music by JIM BARNES' ENTERTAINERS 8 To 12 P. M. Adm. 25c.

GRAND THEATRE TONIGHT

Ralph Ince in "Not In Publication."

Doors Open 6:30. First Show 6:45. MONDAY—"WALKING BACK"

5% Paid on Certificates of Deposit. Interest Check Mailed Every 6 Months.

Your money is always safe for we loan only on first-mortgage real estate.

The Scioto Building & Loan Co.

J. C. GOELLER, Pres. Circleville, Ohio. F. S. Neuding, V-Pres. C. F. Abernethy, Sec'y. G. S. Howard, Treas. M. Terwilliger, Att'y.

DR. G. D. PHILLIPS

Announces the Opening of His

DENTAL OFFICE

119½ S. Court St.

Over Buick Salesroom

CIRCLEVILLE, O.

Where he will conduct a General Practice of Dentistry.

—X-Ray—

Charles Gerhardt

ANSWERING JUDGE CURTAIN'S ATTACK UPON THE CHARACTER, QUALIFICATIONS, AND FITNESS OF HIS OPPONENTS.

I am fully conscious of the public's dislike for discussion by candidates of their opponents' qualifications for office or their lack of them, and the bad taste generally displayed in so doing. I have so far endeavored to confine my political advertisements in this campaign to a recital of facts pertaining to my own fitness for the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

The present incumbent of the office, however, has seen fit to attack the character, qualifications and fitness of his opponents for the place he holds, (and has held for 18 years), in seven different newspapers having a circulation among the voters of Pickaway-co. and I, as one of his opponents, feel that to allow his attack to go unnoticed and unchallenged would be evincing a want of moral courage. My worst enemies have never accused me of moral cowardice. For my own part therefore I challenge the accuracy of his imputations of unfitness.

I was once Prosecuting Attorney of Pickaway-co. My conduct of that office should be a refutation of moral cowardice. It should also enable the voters of Pickaway-co. to determine whether my character in office will be "positive" or "negative" whether it revealed a "man" in the officer, whether I am likely to violate my oath, whether of office or otherwise.

He quotes Abraham Lincoln as saying, "Don't take a good judge off the bench." Good advice when applicable. It hardly applies in his case. He was first elected in 1910. Was re-elected in 1916, and again re-elected in 1922, and is now concluding his third term of six years each.

Sec. 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of Ohio provides that the term of office of Common Pleas Judges shall be for six years, and not for life.

Fitness for the office of judge involves more than a record of past performances. It involves qualifications of present fitness, the possession of physical and mental strength unimpaired by age and the infirmities incident thereto.

I am in my 59th year. His biography as found on pages 294-5 of the late A. R. Van Cleaf's History of Pickaway County recites that he was born near London, Madison-co., Ohio, in the year 1853. He is therefore now 75 years of age and if elected and permitted to live and serve out his term he will then be 81 years old.

It is appointed of all men to die, and he may not hope to be an exception to this law of nature. Sometimes hence the people of Pickaway-co. will have to get along without his services on the bench. There is no way for any lawyer to acquire experience as a judge except by election or appointment to judicial office. We have no schools where judges are made first hand. His successor will have to get his experience in the same way he did.

He says certain Democratic attorneys signed his nomination papers and that this alone should settle the question of his re-election. He does not however, tell that he solicited the signatures of these Democratic lawyers away last January and long before his opponents announced their candidacies and for the express purpose of heading off opposition. We do not understand that these lawyers meant to certify that all other Democratic members of the bar were unfit to be a judge. At any rate I am willing that the voters inquire of them concerning the matter of fitness. There are also a good many Republican lawyers practicing at the bar and they, too, should be consulted, if the matter is going to be settled by the bar.

The action of the Court of Appeals in handing down four judgments of reversal in as many cases presented to it at the last April term should also be an "AID" to the voters in determining his fitness for further service on the bench. It is he who has raised this question of his superior fitness. I am willing that it should be made and considered by every Democratic voter.

In his political advertisement, he admonishes the voters to consider whether it would be to the public interest to elect some one in his place without experience, and about whose qualifications they have no personal knowledge. I confess I have had no experience on the bench. I do think, however, that the people of this county do have personal knowledge concerning me.

I was born, reared, and have lived in Pickaway-co., all of my life, except such time as I spent in college. I have attended two law schools, and am a graduate of one of them. I have, as before stated, had six years experience as Prosecuting Attorney. I have now been in active practice at this bar for over thirty-two years—a generation of time. I have been connected with some of the most important litigation ever prosecuted in this county. My career as a lawyer is an open book which every one either already knows, or may know. I am willing to rest my candidacy on my record as prosecuting attorney and as a practicing lawyer for a period over three decades.

I was first elected Prosecuting Attorney in 1902 and re-elected in 1905 and went out of office Jan. 1st, 1909. This is the first time I have been a candidate in more than 20 years.

I confess to an ambition to round out my career as a lawyer by service on the bench. I am seeking the office for the honor and the opportunity for judicial service, and not the emoluments thereof. In surrendering a private practice, acquired over a generation of time and of which I have reason to be proud, I shall not be exchanging less for more.

If elevated to the bench by the voters of Pickaway-co., I will be wholly free to serve without the embarrassment of any relationships whatsoever with any persons whatsoever. It will be my constant endeavor to so perform the duties of the office as to reflect credit on both myself and Those responsible for my election. I wish now to acknowledge in all thankfulness the help I have received, and am receiving from my supporters, and I respectfully solicit, and will sincerely appreciate, the support of all the Democratic voters at the ensuing primaries on Aug. 14th, 1928.

Very Respectfully Submitted,
CHARLES GERHARDT.

Our Policy

Our policy is one of candor and respectful service. Fairness is a requisite where need is to be served with dignity and consideration. And we are properly equipped to conduct a ceremony of perfect appointment.

RINEHART FUNERAL HOME

INVALID COACH SERVICE

PHONE 1376

203 SOUTH SCIOTO ST.

SOCIETY

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Black of E. Main-st. announce the marriage of their daughter, Thelma, to Mr. Carl Sorg, July 12th, 1928, at Newport, Ky. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorg of E. Franklin-st. and is associated with the Goellers' broom factory.

The bridal couple returned Thursday from a three weeks' wedding trip to Pittsburgh, Pa. They will live for a time at the home of the bride's parents at 457 E. Main-st.

BIRTHDAY PARTY OF FRANK DAVIS JR.

The sixth birthday anniversary of Frank Davis Jr., will long be remembered by a number of his little friends who enjoyed a real birthday party at his home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Games on the large lawn at the Sheriff Davis residence, occupied most of the time until the boys and girls were then invited to fish in the fish pond. This part of the afternoon was very popular, and strange and beautiful things were caught on the dangling hook.

In the dining room at each guest's place was a dainty pink basket filled with candy and the table was also decorated in a color scheme of pink and white.

These boys and girls were invited: Mary Virginia Crites, Alice Davis, Marolyn Lutz, Mary Hays, Gloria Rothman, Mary Jane Bowers, Polly Anna Friedman, Jackie Funk, Floyd Jones, Billy Lutz, Dickie Beechey, Jack Davis, Buddy Brehmer, Howard Orr, Hulse Hays Jr., Billy Bennett Heffner, and David Yates. Mrs. Davis was assisted by her daughters, Eleanor and Matilda and Nancy Jane Merriman.

TO ENJOY SUNDAY AT CAMP GROUNDS

The residents of Circleville who are spending the summer at the Lancaster Camp Grounds, will enjoy the biggest day of the season Sunday, Aug. 5th, with Homer Rodheaver as the head liner on the day's program. Other parties from Circleville will go to the camp grounds just for Sunday and will be guests of friends who have cottages there.

Sunday will be one of the banner days in the history of the Lancaster Campmeeting and Assembly when Homer Rodheaver and company will appear for two concerts. The Naftzger company will appear Sunday morning for the last of a series of evangelistic sermons and music combined. These talented people come from Winona Lake and are among the foremost Evangelists of the day.

Mr. Rodheaver will have as his accompanist Miss Armstrong and Mr. Jester, noted tenor singer for many radio concerts with his brother, Y. P. Rodheaver, will be

(Political Advertisement.)

Joseph W. Adkins

Seeking Nomination for JUDGE OF COURT OF COMMON PLEAS of Pickaway County.

Democratic Primary August 14, 1928.

Your Support Appreciated

the attraction for afternoon and evening.

Already hundreds of people are occupying cottages on the grounds and this evening will see many others that will be moving in, preparatory for the week of Chautauqua which will continue for the entire week.

This ground which has a historical connection with the churches for a half century has become the mecca for thousands of music lovers as well as Christian workers. This Sunday will attract hundreds of people from central Ohio and many from W. Va., and Kentucky.

Many Circleville people are occupying cottages on the grounds and undoubtedly hundreds of others will motor to this beautiful grove of gigantic oak, majestic elms and stately maples. No better place in Ohio can be found for a picnic party and at the same time meet and hear some of the best talent that America can produce.

Following the music of Sunday the Redpath Chautauqua will present five full days of the very best numbers of music and entertainment.

HAVE PICNIC FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. Hildeburn Jones, Mrs. Edna Newmyer, Mrs. Charles Gilmore, Mrs. Hulse Hays and Mrs. Tom Harmon and her two children of Pittsburgh, and Burne Jones, Mary Newmyer, Horace Gilmore and Mary and Hulse Hays Jr., enjoyed a picnic supper together Friday evening.

U. B. SOCIAL IN ASHVILLE

A number of Circleville people have planned to attend the United Brethren social in the parsonage yard in Ashville Saturday afternoon and evening of Aug. 4th. The committee will start serving at 5 p. m. And the social will last until late in the evening.

TO VISIT SON IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Emile S. Toensmeier of the manse, E. Mound-st, left Friday for a visit in New York City with her son, Mr. John A. Toensmeier and family. Later she will be joined by Mr. Toensmeier and son Carl, who will make the trip to New York by motor.

MARRIED SATURDAY AT PARSONAGE

Mrs. Maude Evelyn Pratt and Mr. Harrison Rakestraw, both of Columbus, were quietly married Saturday morning, Aug. 4th, at the Methodist parsonage on N. Pickaway-st. The Rev. Franklin McElfresh was the officiating minister.

BUFFET SUPPER FOR BRIDGE CLUB

A buffet supper was served Friday night by Mrs. Lloyd Jones when she entertained her bridge club and a table of extra friends at her home on W. Franklin-st. The dining room was tastefully decorated with dainty bouquets on the tables where the guests were asked to serve themselves. Mrs. D. Adrian Yates received an attractive prize as a reward for making the highest score at bridge.

MISS SENSENBRENNER TO WED MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sensenbrenner of E. Mound-st. announce the engagement of their daughter, Genevieve, to Mr. Wallace Emmons of Columbus. He is the son of State Commissioner and Mrs. Ralph Emmons of 3054 Midjard-rd. Columbus.

The wedding which will be an event of Aug. 6th will take place at the home of the bride-elect's parents at 6:30 o'clock and the guests will be only members of the immediate families.

RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Charles Eitel, who was taken to Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, several days ago for an abdominal operation was returned to his home on N. Pickaway-st. Friday without having the operation performed. Pleurisy had developed and it was thought advisable to delay the operation, until this trouble had disappeared.

Noted Beauty Kicks Over Career to Hunt a Husband

But Pretty Marion Wants Culture, Too, So She Sails for Europe

By SHIRLEY KIRKE
International Illustrated News Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—Marion Benda has been married. She knows what a wife wants—and it's something you can't get out of a career. So she has chucked her husband and hied herself off to Europe—to acquire a mate with continental culture.

What she thinks of marriage was brought up at first as a jest. Then she got serious, and wrote 14 pages of her opinion of American husbands. It was her departing gift to Yankee swains. Among other things she wrote:

"The culture of European men teaches them respect for women that is absent in the money-making American.

"American man has failed in marriage. His wife lives the same life he does—smokes, golfs, and sits on a throne of independence.

"He thinks she's a good scout, but rarely feels romantic about her.

"Nine times out of ten he is not serious about marriage. He meets a woman, desires her, marries her and then neglects her. The latter might be because the American is fundamentally honest—he can't even fool himself.

"When a European finds himself bored with his wife he doesn't get a divorce immediately. He and his wife continue the organization of the home, rearing children.

"The European woman through a superior knowledge has learned the

MISS MARION BENDA

fundamental law of womanhood—to be only a woman.

"When an American's wife seems despondent, he doesn't sympathize with her, humor her with kind words and caresses—he hands her a roll of banknotes.

"This is why divorces occur. The woman feels there is someone who cares more about her, and goes out to find him."

The pretty show girl said she hadn't any particular person in mind for the role of husband. But she's going to look around a bit before her vacation ends.

PERSONALS

Miss Virginia Marion of Wittenberg college Springfield, is home until over Sunday.

Mrs. Emmett Crist has returned to Epworth Heights, a summer resort near Cincinnati.

Mr. Donald Dixon and Mrs. Dora Reed of Chillicothe, were Circleville visitors Friday.

J. Albert Schoedinger, prominent Columbus resident was a business visitor in Circleville Friday.

Eleanor Jacoby of Columbus, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. P. Reid, and family, of W. Corwin-st.

Mrs. Arthur J. Grigsby and son, Mr. George Grigsby will arrive Sunday by motor from Kansas City, for a visit in Circleville, their former home. They will be guests at the Boggs hotel.

H. W. Plum will spend next week with his family at their cottage at the Lancaster Camp Grounds.

Oneila Marshall and Mrs. Frank Goddard of Wellston were visitors in Circleville Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson of E. Franklin-st., who has been dangerously ill with the flu, is greatly improved and able to be out.

Misses Clara Neuner and Evelyn Strawser, nieces of E. M. Stout of N. Court-st., have returned to his home after a six weeks' visit spent with friends at Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Leland Gott, who has been the guest of her father, Louis Schneider of N. Court-st. will leave for her home in Elyria Sunday, accompanied by her husband, who was a week-end visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDowell and children of W. Mound-st., have returned home from a visit of two weeks with Mrs. McDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Finch, at Carmi, Ill.

MAYTAG EMPLOYEES ENJOY BUFFET DINNER

The regular monthly meeting of the Maytag Sales Corporation, was held Friday night at 8 p. m., at the Hanley dining room in the New American hotel. It was a business and social meeting combined and there were dealers and salesmen present from all over the entire 280 division.

A fine dinner was served in buffet style, which was followed immediately by the business discussions. Excellent entertainment was furnished by "The Bough Brothers"—a trio from London, Ohio. All three members of this family orchestra are associates of the Maytag Corporation.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening were the violin selections, played by George Adam of London, O. Mr. Adam, who is 70 years old, received many enthusiastic encores from his audience. The entire evening was one of pleasure and was enjoyed by the following:

Bill Brokaw and Roy Few of Delaware, O.; Harry Boughn, Edgar Boughn, Alva Boughn, David Towland, John Ames, George Adam, Charles Cheeseman, L. W. Embree, all of London; Frank Powers, John Anderson and W. E. Wright.

Mr. Roy Green of Columbus, district manager was one of the guests and Ira Carpenter, local dealer acted as host.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Redman of Abernethy-ave., announce the birth of a son, Friday, Aug. 3.

Cider Mill

In operation Monday, Wednesday and Friday next week, and every day during the apple season, starting Monday, Aug. 13. Mill on H. M. Crites farm, Island Road. See me before you buy barrels.

AB. ROWE

3 Times Every Day

Your meals are better with

WALLACES TWIN-LOAF or CREAM CRUM BREAD

"The Taste Tells."

Meet Your Friends Here JITNEY DANCE

At the
C. A. C. GYM
Saturday Night

Music by JIM BARNES' ENTERTAINERS
8 To 12 P. M. Adm. 25c.

GRAND THEATRE TONIGHT

Ralph Ince in "Not In Publication."

Doors Open 6:30. First Show 6:45.
MONDAY—"WALKING BACK"

5%

Paid on Certificates of Deposit.
Interest Check Mailed Every 6 Months.

Your money is always safe for we loan only on first-mortgage real estate.

The Scioto Building & Loan Co.

J. C. GOELLER, Pres. Circleville, Ohio.
F. S. Neuding, V. Pres. C. F. Abernethy, Sec'y.
G. S. Howard, Treas. M. Terwilliger, Att'y.

DR. G. D. PHILLIPS

Announces the Opening of His

DENTAL OFFICE

119½ S. Court St.

(Over Buick Salesroom.)

CIRCLEVILLE, O.

Where he will conduct a General Practice of Dentistry.

—X-Ray—

Charles Gerhardt

ANSWERING JUDGE CURTAIN'S ATTACK UPON THE CHARACTER, QUALIFICATIONS, AND FITNESS OF HIS OPPONENTS.

I am fully conscious of the public's dislike for discussion by candidates of their opponents' qualifications for office or their lack of them, and the bad taste generally displayed in so doing. I have so far endeavored to confine my political advertisements in this campaign to a recital of facts pertaining to my own fitness for the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

The present incumbent of the office, however, has seen fit to attack the character, qualifications and fitness of his opponents for the place he holds, (and has held for 18 years), in seven different newspapers having a circulation among the voters of Pickaway-co. and I, as one of his opponents, feel that to allow his attack to go unnoticed and unchallenged would be evincing a want of moral courage. My worst enemies have never accused me of moral cowardice. For my own part therefore I challenge the accuracy of his imputations of unfitness.

I was once Prosecuting Attorney of Pickaway-co. My conduct of that office should be a refutation of moral cowardice. It should also enable the voters of Pickaway-co. to determine whether my character in office will be "positive" or "negative," whether it revealed a "man" in the officer, whether I am likely to violate my oath, whether of office or otherwise.

He quotes Abraham Lincoln as saying, "Don't take a good judge off the bench." Good advice when applicable. It hardly applies in his case. He was first elected in 1910. Was re-elected in 1916, and again re-elected in 1922, and is now concluding his third term of six years each.

Sec. 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of Ohio provides that the term of office of Common Pleas Judges shall be for six years, and not for life.

Fitness for the office of judge involves more than a record of past performances. It involves qualifications of present fitness, the possession of physical and mental strength unimpaired by age and the infirmities incident thereto.

I am in my 59th year. His biography as found on pages 394-5 of the late A. R. Van Cleaf's History of Pickaway County recites that he was born near London, Madison-co., Ohio, in the year, 1853. He is therefore now 75 years of age and if elected and permitted to live and serve out his term he will then be 81 years old.

It is appointed of all men to die, and he may not hope to be an exception to this law of nature. Sometimes hence the people of Pickaway-co., will have to get along without his services on the bench. There is no way for any lawyer to acquire experience as a judge except by election or appointment to judicial office. We have no schools where judges are made first hand. His successor will have to get his experience in the same way he did.

He says certain Democratic attorneys signed his nomination papers and that this alone should settle the question of his renomination. He does not however, tell that he solicited the signatures of these Democratic lawyers away last January and long before his opponents announced their candidacies and for the express purpose of heading off opposition. We do not understand that these lawyers meant to certify that all other Democratic members of the bar were unfit to be a judge. At any rate I am willing that the voters inquire of them concerning the matter of fitness. There are also a good many Republican lawyers practicing at the bar and they, too, should be consulted, if the matter is going to be settled by the bar.

The action of the Court of Appeals in handing down four judgments of reversal in as many cases presented to it at the last April term should also be an "AID" to the voters in determining his fitness for further service on the bench. It is he who has raised this question of his superior fitness... I am willing that it should be made and considered by every Democratic voter.

In his political advertisement, he admonishes the voters to consider whether it would be to the public interest to elect some one in his place without experience, and about whose qualifications they have no personal knowledge. I confess I have had no experience on the bench. I do think, however, that the people of this county do have personal knowledge concerning me.

I was born, reared and have lived in Pickaway-co., all of my life, except such time as I spent in college. I have attended two law schools, and am a graduate of one of them. I have, as before stated, had six years experience as Prosecuting Attorney. I have now been in active practice at this bar for over thirty-two years—a generation of time. I have been connected with some of the most important litigation ever prosecuted in this county. My career as a lawyer is an open book which every one either already knows, or may know. I am willing to rest my candidacy on my record as prosecuting attorney and as a practicing lawyer for a period over three decades.

I was first elected Prosecuting Attorney in 1902 and re-elected in 1905 and went out of office Jan. 1st, 1909. This is the first time I have been a candidate in more than 20 years.

I confess to an ambition to round out my career as a lawyer by service on the bench. I am seeking the office for the honor and the opportunity for judicial service, and not the emoluments thereof. In surrendering a private practice, acquired over a generation of time and of which I have reason to be proud, I shall not be exchanging less for more.

If elevated to the bench by the voters of Pickaway-co., I will be wholly free to serve without the embarrassment of any relationships whatsoever with any persons whomsoever. It will be my constant endeavor to so perform the duties of the office as to reflect credit on both myself and Those responsible for my election. I wish now to acknowledge in all thankfulness the help I have received, and am receiving from my supporters, and I respectfully solicit, and will sincerely appreciate, the support of all the Democratic voters at the ensuing primaries on Aug. 14th, 1928.

Very Respectfully Submitted,
CHARLES GERHARDT.

Our Policy

Our policy is one of candor and respectful service. Fairness is a requisite where need is to be served with dignity and consideration. And we are properly equipped to conduct a ceremony of perfect appointment.

RINEHART FUNERAL HOME

INVALID COACH SERVICE

PHONE 1376
203 SOUTH SCIOTO ST.